Baldwin Hall

The main administrative building, Baldwin Hall, took on a new picture this past year as several personnel and office changes were made. The first change came in the President's office when Dr. F. Clark Elkins became the eighth president of the College and secondly when Dr. Arthur L. Fritschel assumed the position of Dean of Instruction. The office of President Elkins took on a new look as new light fixtures, office equipment including a desk and chair and a rectangular oak conference table and chairs were added. Art students displayed different paintings each week in the President's office.

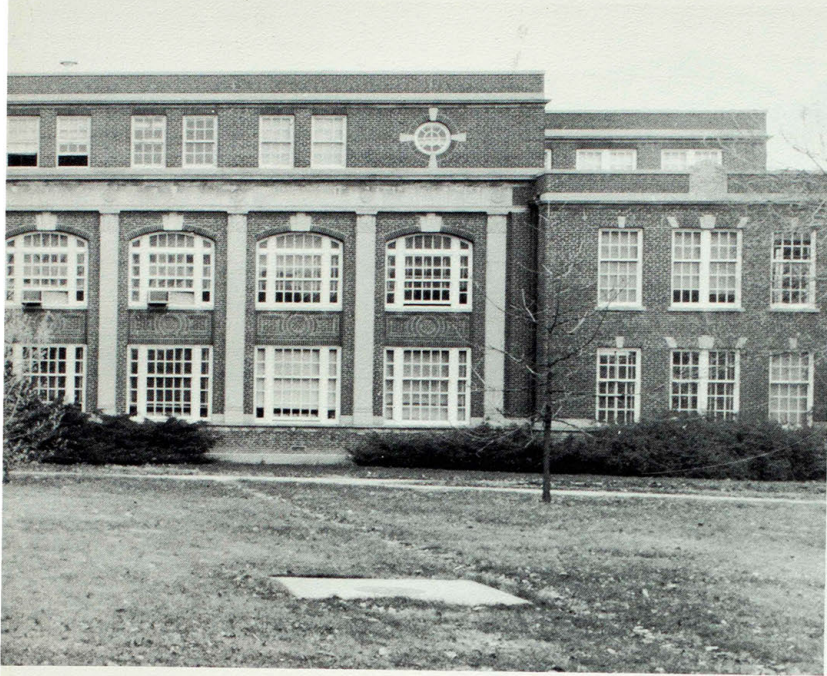

Toward the end of the fall quarter several offices were moved including the division of Extension Service Office which became the Office of the Dean of Instruction and the division of Extension Service moved to the north end of Baldwin Hall in the office previously occupied by Personnel Service. The Registrar's Office expanded to encompass the office occupied by the Dean of Instruction and the mail room. Students completed their financial obligations to the College in Baldwin Hall at the Business Office located on the first and second floors.

The College Auditorium and Little Theater were the scene of a number of student productions, Lyceum programs and special guest lectures.

The Fine Arts division and Language and Literature division are located on the upper floors of Baldwin Hall.

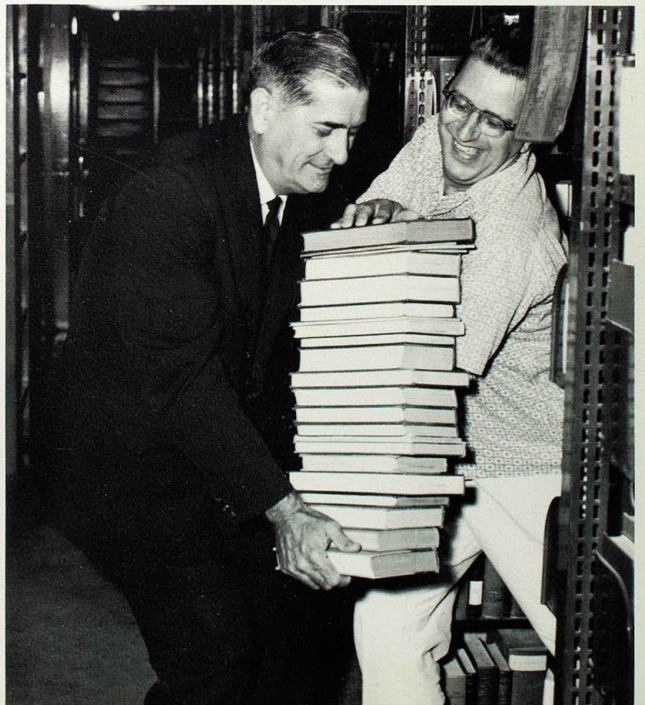

Immediately east of Baldwin Hall across the campus is the laboratory school for practice teachers known as Ophelia Parrish or Kirksville Junior High School. College students who are seeking the teaching degree have an opportunity to participate in classroom teaching techniques. Also located in Ophelia Parrish are several Language and Literature offices.

Pickler Memorial Library

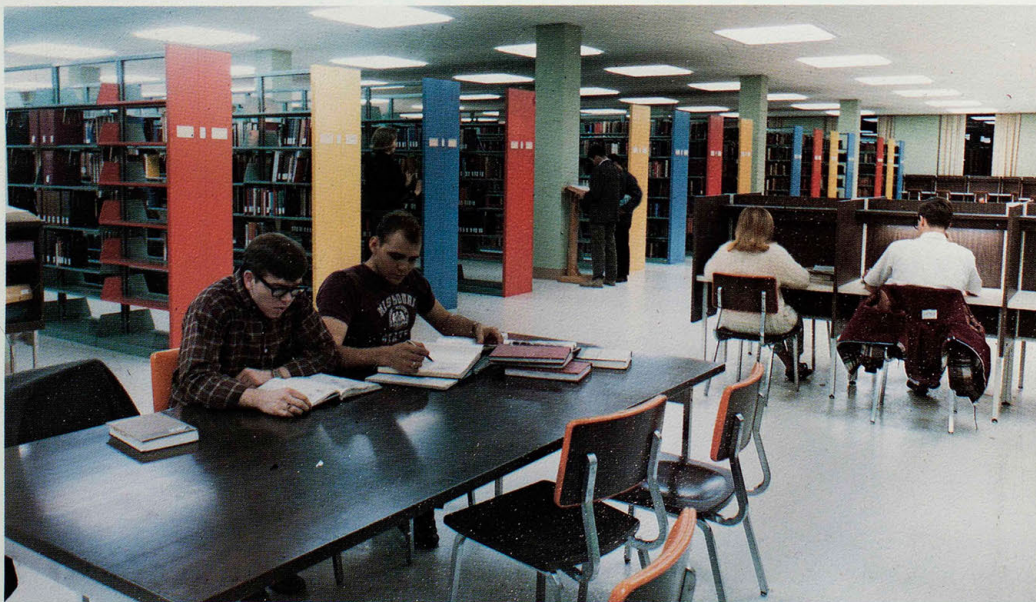

More than 625 faculty members, students and friends of the College participated in LSMFT (library stack move on free Thursday) to help move the Pickler Memorial Library into its new $750,000 addition last summer. A total of 55,000 volumes were moved into the new addition during a nine-hour period.

The completely air-conditioned library addition, which has been extensively used by students and faculty members alike throughout the year, features the use of the "open stack" system.

The first floor of the addition contains a large reading room and the open stacks. The second floor is set aside for periodicals and newspapers. The third floor of the addition provides for more open stacks and also more reading room. With the addition, the library now seats more than 1,000 students and has space for 268,940 books.

Senator Edward V. Long of Missouri designated the Pickler Memorial Library as a Federal depository for Federal documents and publications.

Laughlin Building

Kirk Building

Kirk Memorial

Students entered Laughlin Hall to further their education in various fields of history, as the building houses the division of Social Science.

Freshmen were particularly interested in the ultra-modern lecture-auditorium which was the scene of Background of the Modern World classes.

Admissions and Maintenance offices, also in Laughlin Hall, were bustling with students seeking acceptance into the College and those clearing up parking tickets.

At the east end of the main campus quadrangle, students embarked on the Data Processing Center located in the Kirk Building. The center was put into use for registration purposes for the first time this past summer.

While in the Kirk Building, many students took advantage of the health services available at the student clinic on the main floor.

The offices of the Dean of Student Affairs, the Dean of Women, Freshman Enrollment, Student Housing and Financial Aids are on the west side of Sociability Hall.

Each of the five thousand plus students enrolled this past year made their way up at least once to the third floor of the Kirk Building to be processed for new student identification cards in the I.D. office.

Standing on the site of the old Baldwin Hall at the south end of the main quadrangle is the Kirk Memorial named in honor of John R. Kirk who was the fifth president of the College.

Off to the east side of the rotunda in the Kirk Memorial is the office of President Emeritus, Dr. Walter H. Ryle, who is in the process of writing a complete history of the College. Immediately across the rotunda is the foreign student adviser's office.

In the basement of the Kirk Memorial is located the College Museum which contains many articles of historical value for Northeast Missouri and the surrounding area.

Approximately 6,000 students, faculty members and friends of the college daily visited the new Student Union building which was opened October 27. The Student Union, built at a cost of $2,500,000, provides the "living room on campus" for the student body.

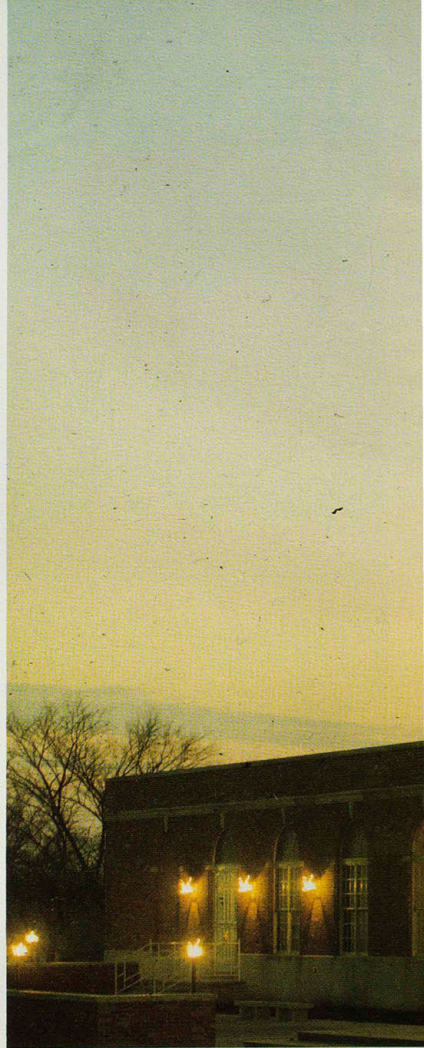

The Art Gallery also served as an impressive entrance to the Spanish Dining Room, which seats 64 patrons, and carries out the Spanish theme in its furnishings which include: high-backed chairs of dark wood covered with black leather and studded with ornamental brass and imported from Spain; tables for four which are of a wood grain design; and a large hand-carved breakfront and service-chest imported from Mexico. The walls are covered with dark beechwood paneling and the electric-eye doors opening into the ultra-modern kitchen are also covered with black leather and studded with brass. Small brass chandeliers designed in Mexico hang from the ceiling of the Spanish room. Guests enter and leave via a 12-foot wrought iron gate.

One of the most popular rooms used by the students was the Snack Bar with seating capacity of 400. The gaily decorated Snack Bar features several booths in the traditional purple color and several tables and chairs scattered throughout the dining area. Throughout the year students made use of the "short orders" and refreshments available in the Snack Bar.

Directly across the concourse from the Snack Bar is the beautifully furnished Quiet Lounge which provides a relaxing and comforting atmosphere for students desiring to study or just take it easy. Adorning the Quiet Lounge are several lounging couches and soft chairs of modern provincial styling. Three large brass chandeliers hang high above the carpeted Quiet Lounge floor. The west wall is highlighted by a decorative marble fireplace.

The ground floor of the Student Union features the Games Room which was opened for approximately 100 hours each week throughout the year. Students made continuous use of the 14 billard tables, table tennis facilities, the eight lanes for bowling and games tables. The brightly decorated room is accentuated by rough cut redwood, red and black vinyl wall coverings and a carpeted entrance. Also on the ground floor is the College Bookstore with 4,200 feet of sales space. The Bookstore provides the necessities needed by the college student for his studies program. A four-chair barber shop, also on the ground floor, was in constant use during the year.

Students and guests alike made many trips to the top floor of the Student Union as they attended various functions held in the Activities Room. One of the highlights of the year for this room was the President's Inaugural Ball held in conjunction with the Inauguration of Dr. F. Clark Elkins. The large outdoor roof garden was entered through the doors of the Activities Room. The garden, which was used by many during the fall and winter quarters, is gaily decorated with umbrella tables of red, white and blue and outdoor lighting. Three hundred feet of concrete benching surrounds the roof garden.

Snack Bar

Six meeting rooms and a television room, with a seating capacity of 100, were extensively used primarily during the evening hours and on weekends since the opening of the Student Union. An overflow crowd of 809 alumni and guests filled the Georgian Dining Room which was opened for the first time at the Centennial Homecoming banquet. Following that initial dinner, the room was used by many campus and off campus organizations for various activities.

Alumni and college groups held various seminars, meetings, receptions and smokers in the Alumni room located on the main floor. Covered in a dark wood paneling, the room has several soft lounge chairs and table lamps accentuated by a huge walnut conference table.

Immediately to the south of the main entrance is a large patio featuring permanent concrete benches, brick footing and numerous colorful flower beds.

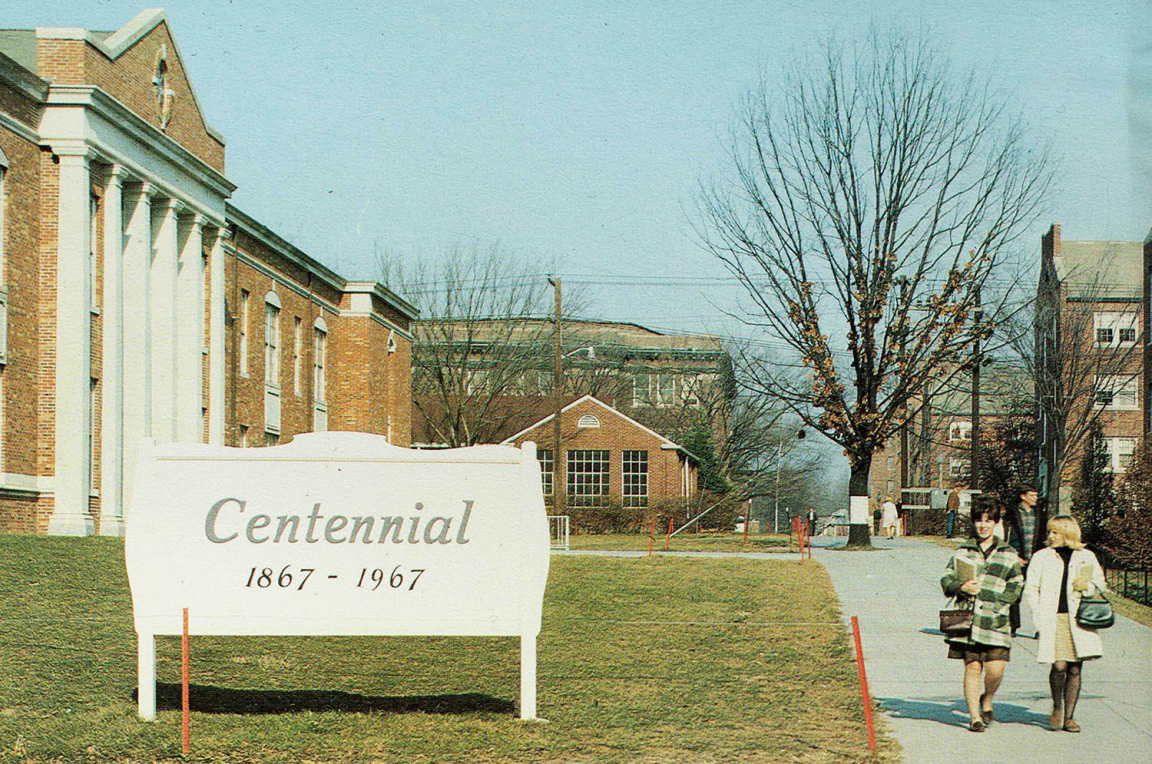

The Student Union building was constructed by the Thomas Construction Company of St. Joseph.

Games Room

Over 2,300 Northeast Missouri State College students made use of on-campus housing facilities during the past school year. Living and dining facilities were provided for students in nine dormitories and the Home Management House. An astounding total of over 1,750,000 meals were served by the College food service.

Male students are housed in Dobson and Missouri Halls and the Bulldog Kennels. Coeds occupied suites in Ryle, Blanton, Brewer, Nason and Grim Halls. The Adair House began an experimental dormitory for senior women designed to give the student more individual control and freedom in dormitory living.

The Home Management House was lived in by approximately twelve coeds who were majoring in home economics. Living in the house for one quarter gave the students practical experience in various aspects of housekeeping including finances, marketing and house upkeep. Each student had an opportunity to provide and exercise the leadership of the Home Management House.

More dormitory facilities will become available in the fall of 1968 when the $2,935,000 Centennial Hall for women is completed. Facilities including dining and living quarters will provide a College home for approximately 680.

Centennial Hall was named in honor of the Centennial year celebrated by the College during 1967.

Practical Arts Building

Bordering the south edge of the main campus is the Industrial Arts building which is occupied by the division of Practical Arts and the facilities for the college publicity photographer. The unusually long building contains shops and equipment for metal working, plastics, bench working, driver's training apparatus and other equipment necessary for training teachers in the field of practical arts.

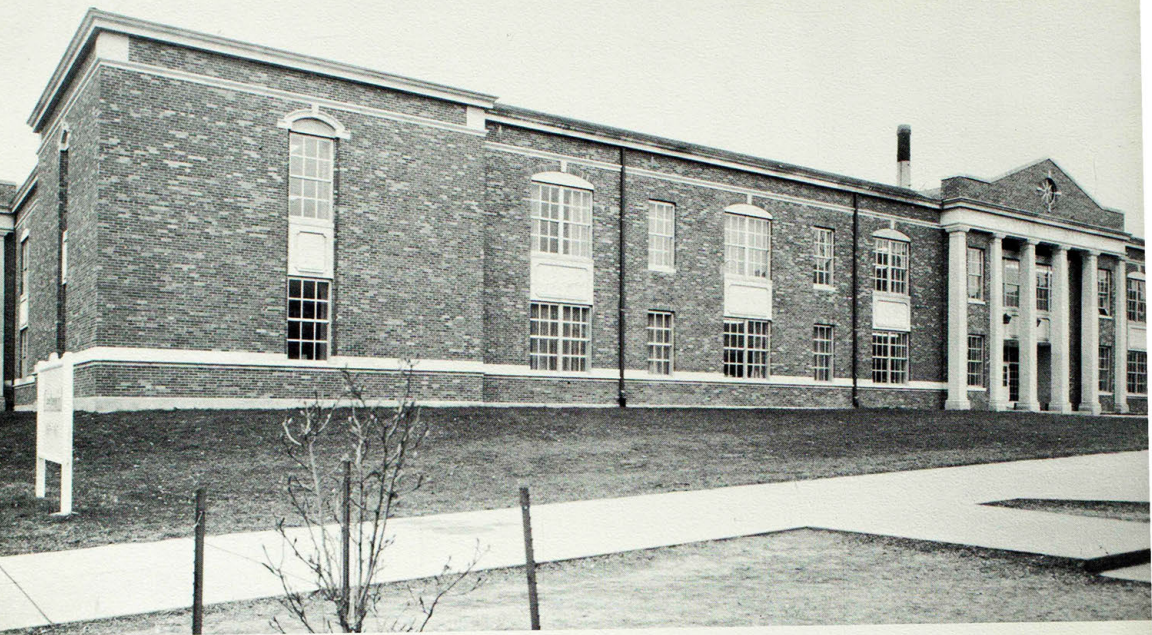

The Practical Arts division received word this past year of allocation of funds for the construction of an ultra-modern Industrial Arts building to be tentatively scheduled for construction west of the Pershing Building.

Science Hall students were actively engaged in experimental projects ranging from chemical reactions to the study of bacteria and their environment as part of their training in the field of science. Several members of the science faculty carried on experiments for the city of Kirksville and Adair County to provide information on the sewer filtration and bacteria deposits. Students making use of the building ranged from general science students to pre-osteopathic and pre-medical students.

The division of Science is anxiously awaiting the completion of the south wing to the Science Hall. The addition is designed to serve as a laboratory building, to provide additional office, research, and classroom space for physics, chemistry, biology, botany and zoology.

Science Hall

Violette Hall

Campbell Apartments

Students taking courses in business, home economics, mathematics, education, or in one of the special programs became familiar with Violette Hall as it houses these divisions. Some of the courses in the Social Science division were also taught in the building. The modern, totally airconditioned unit was named in honor of E. M. Violette, a former professor of history at the College.

Articles on noteworthy accomplishments of students were sent to their home town newspapers by the Public Relations and Information Service, while the Alumni Office corresponded with the more than 15,000 graduates of the College.

Students concerned about their honor point ratio or the various testing programs were often in contact with the Personnel Office which was moved to the second floor of Violette Hall in the early part of winter quarter. The Teacher Education Office took care of all students who planned to receive a degree in education.

Students interested in photography got acquainted with that department, while journalism enthusiasts spent many hours in the Echo-Index office.

A student paused to admire the landscape of the Violette Hall Mall in the upper right picture as she contemplated the discussion in her previous class.

Married students and their families wishing to live on campus were provided apartments for their convenience. Campbell Apartments were named after the Campbell family from whom the land was obtained. Fair Apartments were named in honor of Eugene Fair, the sixth president of the College.

Thousands of fans filed through the gates of Stokes Stadium this past fall to watch the Bulldog gridders participate in the exciting sport of football and to provide the team with enthusiastic support necessary in athletic competition.

Following the football season, the fans moved into the Pershing Arena to provide the same support for the Bulldog basketball, wrestling and tennis teams.

Spring quarter brought the fans back to Stokes Stadium to watch the nationally ranked Bulldog track team participate in several outdoor meets.

Members of several of the Bulldog athletic teams were provided with housing in the Bulldog Kennels located adjacent to the Stokes Stadium field. Also housed in the Kennels is the football training room, equipment room and coaching offices.

Board of Regents Makes Policy for College

Progress today is seldom the outgrowth of chance. More often it is achieved through the combined efforts of many people—a prime example being the Board of Regents, Hubert Wheeler, State Commissioner of Education since 1947, and the Administrative staff.

As the policy making body of the College, the Board enacts modern courses of action for the education of tomorrow's teachers. With vision and foresight, the six-man team approves faculty appointments, promotes building programs, and budgets appropriated funds. Members of the Board are appointed from the Northeast Missouri district by the Governor and approval is made by the state Senate.

The President of the Board of Regents, James R. Reinhard, was appointed to the Board in 1965. A lawyer in Paris, Mr. Reinhard is an Honorary Colonel for Governor Warren E. Hearnes and is active in state and local Bar Associations. Mr. Reinhard attended the College from 1947 to 1950.

Glenn H. Bolton serves as vice president of the Board. Appointed to the Board in 1963, Mr. Bolton is the manager of Tri-County Electric Cooperative in Lancaster. He attended the College in 1928 and 1929.

Appointed in 1963 was the first woman to ever serve on the Board. Mrs. Mary Alice Bunney, secretary of the Board, is an alumnae of the College. The former school teacher is from Shelbyville and is a member of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs.

Another alumnus of the College, Raymand E.

Baker, Brookfield, was appointed to the Board in 1967. Mr. Baker owns the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company in Brookfield and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Brookfield Banking Company. He is also an Honorary Colonel for Governor Hearnes.

John H. Bartow, appointed to the Board in 1965, operates a hardware store, is part owner of a pecan company, and is a real estate broker. He has served as a member of the Brunswick City Council, a civil defense director, president of the Lion's Club, and a commander of the American Legion.

Bruce H. Hunt, Kirksville, was appointed to the Board of Regents in 1967. He is Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons and the General Grand Recorder of the General Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters International.

By virtue of his office, Hubert Wheeler is Regent Ex Officio.

College Begins New Era With Dr. F. Clark Elkins

"I accept the office of President of Northeast Missouri State College and pledge to it the best of my abilities, strength, and purpose," pledged Dr. F. Clark Elkins as he accepted the charge by the Board of Regents on November 7.

In the College's first Inaugural Address of the second century, Dr. Elkins expressed the need to restore the status of teaching and extended energies in a more effective education system. He emphasized that, "We must commit more of our energies toward helping our various lay publics to see that 'the schools of America must save America,' as formerly stated by the American Bar Association."

Before assuming the Presidency on February 1, 1967, Dr. Elkins served as President of Chadron State College, Chadron, Nebraska. He is a graduate of Paris, Arkansas, High School, received the B.A. from Arkansas State Teachers College, the M.A. from University of Arkansas, and the Doctorate of Social Science at Syracuse University. The new president has also attended the University of North Carolina and has done post-doctoral study at the University of Minnesota.

Inauguration Day was rigorous for the entire Elkins family. A mid-day break gave photographers an opportunity to take a family picture.

Missouri Governor Warren E. Hearnes and President F. Clark Elkins were interviewed by WGEM-TV following the president's inauguration.

An examiner and consultant for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Dr. Elkins is also chairman of the Visitation and Accreditation Committee for the Western Section of the National Council on Accreditation for Teacher Education.

Dr. Elkins' wife, Norma, is a former elementary school teacher, and his daughter, Annette, is a junior high school student. Family interests center around education, books, and music.

Marcia Lippert works closely with President Elkins as his executive secretary.

Fritschel Becomes New Dean of Instruction

Dr. Arthur L. Fritschel was named Dean of Instruction at the College during the past summer quarter.

A native of Minneapolis, Dean Fritschel attended Colorado State College at Greeley, receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree in music, the Masters degree from Northwestern University and the Doctorate degree from Colorado University. He has also done post-doctorate study at Colorado University and Stanford.

Piloting several changes in the academic program as chairman of the Curriculum Committee, Dean Fritschel's responsibilities also carried him into the role of preparing special reports for the United States Office of Education and for the Missouri Commission on Higher Education.

The Dean and his office staff prepared the material which appeared in the College catalogue and the publication of the quarterly class schedule.

Working with the division chairman, the Dean carried on the duty of recruiting and employing new staff members.

Prior to his appointment here, Dr. Fritschel taught in the public schools of Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, and Illinois for six years. In 1946, he joined the faculty of Western Illinois University at Macomb and since 1957, served as Head of the Department of Education at Western Illinois.

Dean of Graduate Studies

Dr. Judson P. Martin became Director of Graduate Studies at the College on April 15. The new Dean of Graduates came to the NMSC campus from the Bemidjii State College in Bemidjii, Minnesota.

Under the direction of the new Dean, the graduate program at the College is undergoing various changes in curriculum. Dr. Martin is also chairman of the Graduate Council.

Dr. Martin is a native of Madison, Wisconsin and received the Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin. He received his Master's degree from the U. of W. in 1946 and the Ph.D.

in 1955 from the same University. He has done additional graduate study at the University of Michigan.

Serving as president of the Higher Education Section of the Minnesota Education Association, Dr. Martin is also a member of numerous professional and honorary organizations and societies. He has been active in civic and fraternal organizations, holds several offices in Masonic organizations, Boy Scouts, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce and Rotary.

Division of Student Affairs

Under the direction of division head Henry Boucher, the division of Student Affairs was in charge of the administration and supervision of student conduct and discipline, student organizations and social activities, on and off campus housing, student aids, awards and scholarships, student employment, and other non-academic activities concerned with the general welfare of the students.

This past year Miss Rita Gramann was named Dean of Women at NMSC. Her primary duties were working with beginning freshmen, setting up the social calendar, distributing the monthly activities calendar, and making her office available to the co-eds on campus. She was the faculty sponsor of the Panhellenic Council.

The Director of Freshman Enrollment was responsible for the orientation, advisement, and enrollment of all new freshmen students.

Housing of students both on and off campus was the chief responsibility of the Director of Housing.

Students seeking financial aid while attending College frequently visited the Direction of Financial Aids who placed qualified students in positions on the work-study program.

Maintenance

The Maintenance division again this year was in charge of taking care of campus buildings, grounds, all non-instructional materials, and all store rooms and warehouses on the NMSC campus.

Departments under the direction of Mr. Morris were the College engineers, firemen, carpenters, painters, electricians, security patrol, custodians, gardeners and other personnel of the maintenance forces. His three chief assistants were, chief engineer, Gene Schnieder; head custodian, Don Barnett; and head gardner, Carl Guffy.

Division of Extension Service

The division of Extension Service dealt primarily with those activities which extended the services of the College to the area it serves. The division is primarily composed of the Bureau of Placements, the Bureau of Correspondence and Extension Teaching, the Bureau of High School Educational Activities, and the Bureau of Audio-Visual Education.

The division continued to meet the ever growing needs of public schools and the communities served by them by offering many academic courses and educational services through the various bureaus in the division of Extension Service.

Division of Public Relations and Information Service

The Centennial celebration, publication of College materials, co-ordination of alumni meetings and direction of alumni affairs were a portion of the major activities carried out by the division of Public Relations and Information Service throughout the year.

During the year 1967 Mr. McKinney, Mr. Colton, and Mr. Harrison represented the College on various occasions at alumni and other meetings discussing the Centennial celebrations of the College.

Regular activities carried out by the division are assembling and disseminating news regarding College students and faculty members in both the academic and athletic areas, regular visitations of past graduates by the College co-ordinator, and communicating with the nearly 15,000 alumni of NMSC.

Division of Testing and Counseling Service

The primary purpose of the division of Testing and Counseling Service was to deal directly with personal problems of members of the student body. Through the division, students were able to find assistance in areas of economic, social, educational or vocational problems.

A primary activity of the division was assisting students through psychological testing programs. The Bureau also kept records of each student's achievements both scholastically and otherwise which assisted the personnel of the office in rendering the help necessary to students seeking aid. Throughout the year students were encouraged to take advantage of the testing and counseling service of the department so as to help solve their personal, educational, and vocational problems.

Orville Bowers
Registrar

Office of the Registrar

The office of the Registrar was again responsible for accurately keeping academic records and preserving the integrity of the academic credit of the College. Other duties of the Registrar's office included admission of students, certification of credits to State Departments of Education and to other colleges, evaluation of credits, recording and reporting of grades, furnishing of transcripts and maintaining a cumulative permanent record of all students enrolled at NMSC.

Assisting Mr. Bowers this past year was Tom Sommerkamp who was responsible for the improvements in arrangements for quarterly registration.

The final activity of the academic year for the Registrar's office was submitting names of students to the Dean of Instruction who have fulfilled the requirements for graduation.

Kenneth Sykes
Head, Student Union

Student Union

Kenneth Sykes assumed the responsibilities in October of directing the new Student Union and its various departments of service. Under his direction, the Student Union in its first year opened the doors to NMSC students for social, academic and leisurely places of meeting and activities.

Assisting Mr. Sykes in many of his new endeavors in the Student Union was his secretary, Jean Elliott.

The games room was under the direction of Steve Hunt.

The Student Union remained open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day of the academic year in order to give all students an opportunity to take advantage of the services offered by the Student Union.

Charles Elam
Head, Division of Admissions

Office of Admissions

Thousands of new students contacted the office of Admissions during the past year concerning admission and information about NMSC. The Admissions office assisted these new and prospective students and disseminated to these persons information, literature and other facts concerning the College, its services and facilities.

One of the chief programs carried out by the Admissions office was co-ordinating Senior Day held for visiting seniors of the area on the College campus during spring quarter.

Division of Business Service

The division of Business Service was chiefly responsible for carrying out the business and financial books of the College. Within this division was the Purchasing Agent, who made all the purchases for the College upon proper requisition; the Comtroller who administered the internal budget of the College and certified the Purchasing Agent that the expenditures were within the division's appropriations; the Stenographic Office which was responsible for all stenographic and duplicating service used by the College; and the Telephone Exchange which provided communication service for NMSC students and faculty.

Data Processing

Computers invaded the College campus in all administrative and academic areas during the 1967-68 year. The IBM 1440 Computer was introduced to the campus in the fall of 1966 and only until this past fall was it put to complete use processing various materials for all departments on the campus.

Registration for the College students was made simpler and quicker by processing through the IBM Computer. All student records are now entered through the Data Processing Center.

Health Service

Hundreds of students daily entered the College Health Office throughout the year to obtain the services provided by the clinic. Under the supervision of Dr. John Biggerstaff and three registered nurses, the Health Office provided the students with medical assistance ranging from headaches to treatment of the severe flu attack this past winter to minor personal counseling.

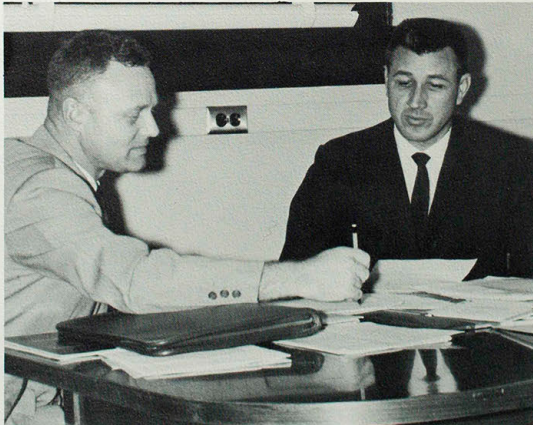

The Health Office dispensed thousands of capsules and administered hundreds of inoculations.

Upward Bound

Approximately 100 students from the northeast Missouri area were enrolled in the Upward Bound program conducted on the College campus this past year.

Students enrolled in the program received tuition, room and board in a College dormitory, books, and an allowance of $10 a week for spending money. Funds were allocated to the College for the Upward Bound program by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Business Education

Three degree programs were made available during the past year by the division of Business Education for students interested in business. Upon completion of one of the programs, a student could receive the Bachelor of Science in Education, or the Bachelor of Science degree, or the Master of Arts degree.

During the year the division also made available classes to students not majoring in business who sought preparation for office and secretarial training with one and two-year terminal courses.

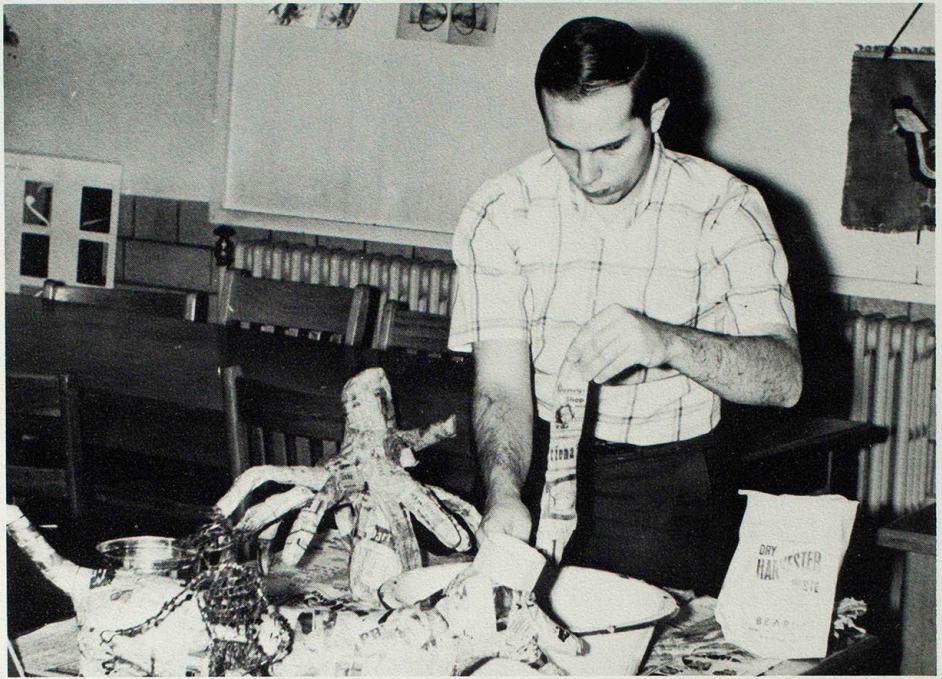

Satisfactory completion of the secretarial courses on the one or two-year plan carried with it a Certificate of Completion. Students who completed the program with an average of B or better received special recognition with honors.

EDUCATION

Under the direction of Dr. Taylor Lindsey, the twenty-two faculty members of the Education division helped prepare approximately five-hundred students this past academic year who will be entering the teaching profession in the fall of 1968.

According to Dr. Lindsey, the division strived to prepare these students to become teachers, guidance counselors, principals, and supervisors for schools in Missouri and throughout the nation.

The courses in education gave stress to acquaintance with children and youth, and presented more on understanding of school organization. Through these two ideals it was hoped that the skill in the art and science of teaching, plus an understanding of the democratic role of the public school, was gained.

The division of Education administered the B.S. in Ed. degree in elementary education, the M.A. degree in elementary education, elementary school administration, and elementary school guidance.

On the secondary level a B.S. in Ed. in secondary education, and M.A. in secondary school administration, and secondary school guidance were offered. Many of these students continued on with their education here at the College doing graduate work in various fields.

Fine Arts

Preparing elementary teachers in the use of the arts as education media; the preparation of secondary teachers and consultants of the public schools; and the conservation of talent for future professional and vocational use are the three primary objectives of the division of Fine Arts.

Beyond these functions the division tries to foster interest on the part of the entire student body in the practical and aesthetic values of the arts and the appreciation of their part in past history and their present influence in daily living.

From the division of Fine Arts come programs in music from piano concerts to halftime entertainment at football games provided by the Marching 100. Several art shows were on display throughout the year showing various art works done by students and faculty members of the Fine Arts division.

Health and Physical Education

Within the division of Health and Physical Education are fields of study in men's and women's physical education, health education, recreation, and nursing.

The division offers education and practice in correct health methods and administration and offers opportunities for participation in a program of extracurricular physical education.

The division also administers a sound program of intercollegiate athletic competition and prepares professional nurses to serve the expanding needs of humanity in health and disease.

In conjunction with the division, the College is a member of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA); National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA); and is a member agency of the National League for Nursing, and the department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs.

Sewing is just one of the many facets of homemaking emphasized in the curriculum of the division of Home Economics.

Home Economics

The division of Home Economics provides a major which prepares teachers of vocational home economics for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education and qualifies them to teach in Missouri schools. Certification is granted on application and presentation of official transcript to the State Department of Education (Home Economics) in Jefferson City.

A non-teaching major is also offered which meets the requirements for a degree of Bachelor of Science in Home-making.

The junior and senior program for home economics majors is based around advanced courses in coping with and solving household and family situations. These classes range from preparation of the family diet by means of proper food buying and meal management to selection of clothing and household furnishings and continuing into the development and solution of problems met in family relationships.

During one quarter of the senior year a home economics major lives in the Home Management House which places the student in an atmosphere where she can apply her personal learnings to home management.

Libraries and Museums

With the opening of the $750,000 addition to the Pickler Memorial Library, the division of Libraries and Museums is able to offer students pursuing a major in library science more on-the-job training in more diversified fields of library work.

Endeavoring to further the educational aims of the College by providing library science courses, library materials and library service, the division of Libraries and Museums offers a library science curriculum designed for the training of public school librarians and part-time teacher-librarians in accordance with state and national standards. Another major objective of the division is to promote the general education of each student with instruction in the use of libraries both in classes and individually when he uses the College library.

Besides maintaining instruction in classes concerning library work, the division also supervises the entire Pickler Memorial Library and is responsible for maintaining the College Archives and the specialty rooms of the library which include the Missouriana Room, Glenn Frank Room, and Children's Library.

Student help is used for checking books in and out and shelving books.

Under the heading of general education, the division of Language and Literature taught the skills of oral and written communication; provided the fundamentals of literary understanding and appreciation; and offered introductory courses in the study of foreign languages and cultures.

The professional school in the division offered the student numerous major fields of study from a variety of foreign languages to the study of Shakespeare to the vast studies of the American language and literature. Culmination of study in these fields resulted in the receiving of either the Bachelor of Science in Education or the Bachelor of Arts degrees.

The Master of Arts degree with a major in English Education also was offered by the division of Language and Literature.

The Language Laboratory played an important part in the learning process for students taking foreign languages.

Mathematics

In the division of Mathematics, the courses were designed to prepare teachers of mathematics for secondary schools and junior colleges; to provide for the mathematics education of the elementary teachers; and to provide courses of study in mathematics pertaining to professions in industry, business, and government.

The division offers the Bachelor of Science in Education degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, and the Master of Arts degree.

The curriculum offered by the division provided an opportunity for the student to begin his individual study of mathematics at an appropriate level where he is challenged and in which he could succeed.

Practical Arts

The division of Practical Arts was notified during the past year that funds had been allocated for the construction of a new Practical Arts building. Tentative plans show the building site to be on South Franklin.

Students majoring in the division of Practical Arts can receive the Bachelor of Science in Education degree in Agriculture and Industrial Education or the Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture or Industrial Arts. The division also offered the Master of Arts degree to teachers in Industrial Education.

Science

Faculty members and students who spend a great deal of their time in Science Hall were anxiously awaiting the opening of the addition to the present building which will help alleviate the congestion as a result of the large growth of students showing interest in the field of science.

The division of Science offers majors in biology, botany, zoology, chemistry, physics, and general science.

By special arrangement with other colleges and universities the division offered the curriculum necessary to complete the proper requirements for a pre-professional student to transfer without loss of credit.

The division prepares a large number of students for advanced study in osteopathy, medicine, and engineering.

A fifth year program leading to the Master of Arts in General Science with a special emphasis on either biological science or physical science was offered during the year.

Beginning with the summer quarter of 1968, the division of Science will be offering the Master of Science degree. The announcement was made earlier this year by the College Board of Regents.

Social Science

The division of Social Science offers majors in the fields of social science, history, economics, geography, psychology, political science and sociology which lead to the Bachelor of Science in Education degree. Several of these courses also offer the Bachelor of Arts degree.

The division contributes heavily to the comprehensive courses of the general college—offering the required courses in Background of the Modern World as well as subjects among the directed electives.

Students majoring in elementary education, business administration, vocational home economics, and several other fields are furnished the required courses by Social Science to complete their degree work.

A Master of Arts degree in the fields of Social Science and History is also made available by the division.

Special Programs

One of the newest divisions on the campus is the division of Special Programs which offers courses of study leading to both the graduate and undergraduate degrees.

Comprising the division were four major areas including reading, special education, speech pathology, and audiology.

Students enrolled in the division of Special Programs were provided with the finest facilities available for their particular field of work. Students conducted diagnostic clinics in speech, hearing, and reading for both the College and residents of the surrounding areas.

ORGANIZATIONS

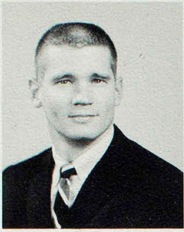

Student Council

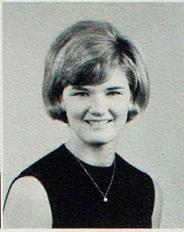

With the opening of the new Student Union to the closing of the year with a Student Council picnic, the members of the 1967-68 Council strived diligently to give the NMSC students their voice on campus and provide them with the social activities necessary to round out a successful college year.

With Jack Wright at the helm of the 1967-68 Student Council, the students were presented with opportunities to participate in many activities throughout the year. The Inauguration ceremonies of Dr. F. Clark Elkins were witnessed by several hundred NMSC students as arrangements were made by the Student Council for the student's participation in the activities.

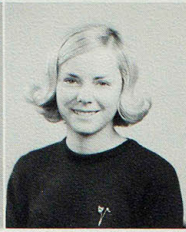

Through this past year's Student Council, students were represented on the Lyceum Committee. Weekly dances and movies, sponsoring of the annual Christmas Dance and ECHO Dance, pool tournaments, bowling tournaments, and pop concerts gave the members of the student body every opportunity to see the Student Council in action.

College Ushers

Absent for the group picture, but early for the Ramsey Lewis Lyceum program were Kaye Johnson, Nancy Bulick and Connie Hickenbottom.

Vivaciousness, beauty and courtesy were three attributes displayed by the College Ushers throughout the year as they provided excellent service in assisting patrons of College programs held in the Auditorium.

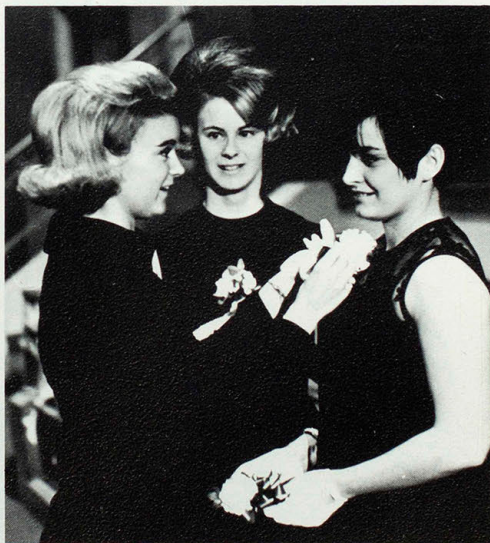

The first activity of the year ushered by the group was the Centennial Convocation which was attended by more than 200 dignitaries from throughout the United States.

The Inauguration of Dr. F. Clark Elkins during the fall quarter provided another opportunity for the College Ushers to extend their services. They were responsible for the proper seating of special guests of the first family and of the College.

Closing the year's activities for the Ushers was rendering assistance at Commencement exercises.

Organized in April, 1959, with the opening of the new College Auditorium, the College Ushers have been serving as hostesses for numerous College functions. Basically the group has been present for Lyceum programs, concerts, commencement activities and other all-school affairs.

At Lyceum programs and similar affairs, the Ushers can be recognized readily by their "basic black" attire accentuated with purple and white carnation corsages.

Cardinal Key

Members of Cardinal Key began the past year's activities with the sale of Centennial Homecoming buttons, with proceeds going toward financing the Nan E. Wade Scholarship. The scholarship was presented this past spring to a selected, deserving College woman.

Accompanied by Leona Whitton, sponsor, several members of the Eugene Fair Chapter attended the National Cardinal Key convention which was held at Arkansas Polytechnic Institute in Russellville, Arkansas.

A former president of the local chapter, Sue Davis, served as chairman of the national meeting.

Other activities conducted by Cardinal Key included the decorating and lighting of a Christmas tree in Violette Hall and one in the Student Union.

Cardinal Key is an organization for women of at least junior status in American colleges and universities who are leaders in the college community and who are potential leaders in the future. The sorority's goals are: honoring qualified women, inspiring leadership in others, and utilizing leadership capabilities in an active program of service to school and community.

Student Council president Jack Wright bought the first Centennial Homecoming button from Martha Acuff, Cardinal Key president.

Last minute changes in the Blue Key Student Directory were handled by Editor Vic Kaylarian.

Blue Key

"Serving, I live," the motto of Blue Key Scholastic Service Fraternity for men, was actively carried out in service projects this past year by the organization.

Under the presidency of Harry Farr, Blue Key men assumed the responsibility of production and direction of the Centennial Homecoming parade which had 124 entries including floats, bands, Shriner groups, and commercial units.

The fraternity also provided service to the College by conducting campus tours on Senior Day, compiling the all-school directory, maintaining the Travel Board, and sponsoring the College Campus Bowl.

Membership in Blue Key is restricted to upper-classmen who have maintained a high degree of intellectual attainment, leadership and character.

Faculty sponsor of the John R. Kirk Chapter of Blue Key is Dr. Eli Mittler with Stan Williams assisting.

Veterans Club

Veterans of the armed forces on the College campus participated actively in the Ronald K. Cullers Memorial Veterans Club providing service to the College and to the Kirksville community. The Veterans Club was established in November of 1966 and was designated the Ronald K. Cullers Memorial Veterans Club in honor of the first graduate of the College to be killed in the Vietnamese conflict.

The Veterans Club is essentially a service organization in nature. During the year it provided assistance with the quarterly registration period, entertained a number of children at a Christmas party and contributed their services during the Homecoming period.

Members of the Veterans Club provided services to the community and to the College throughout the year.

Alpha Phi Omega

Epsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, opened their year's projects by arranging the pre-game activities for the Centennial Homecoming and providing assistance to the Blue Key honorary fraternity with the Homecoming parade.

APO also rendered their assistance to the Kirksville chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and provided assistance to several local scouting clubs. The highlight of the social activities of Epsilon chapter was the sponsoring of the annual Ugly Man Contest. The proceeds from these activities were donated to such organizations as the United Fund and the Heart Fund.

Under the direction of Mr. Arthur Harrington, Epsilon chapter was chosen as one of the outstanding chapters of Alpha Phi Omega in the United States this past year.

Alpha Phi Omega is the nation's largest service fraternity with nearly 400 chapters active throughout the United States. Membership is composed of young men who have been or are affiliated with the scouting program. The cardinal principles of Alpha Phi Omega are leadership, friendship, and service.

APO provided assistance during the tedious task of registration.

Phi Delta Kappa

Phi Delta Kappa expended its time and effort toward two major service projects this past year. The first of these was the sponsoring of the Centennial Convocation held on September 2, 1967, in honor of the 100th birthday of the College. Over 200 dignitaries representing colleges and universities throughout the United States attended the Convocation.

The local chapter continued its service project to education by providing two, one-year scholarships to young men in education. The graduate award went to Russell Ashburn, while Terry Whitworth was presented with the undergraduate scholarship.

Phi Delta Kappa began in 1910 by a consolidation of three independent fraternities at Indiana University, Columbia University and the University of Missouri. Campus chapters are now found in colleges and universities throughout North America where graduate work is done. Students selected for membership are not always graduate students but at NMSC the local requirement is that they must have had one quarter of graduate work with superior grades.

Since its beginning in 1928, the campus chapter has initiated more than 500 men. This year the local chapter was sponsored by Dr. Linn Terry who also served as state coordinator of Phi Delta Kappa in Missouri.

Meetings were held monthly during the academic year and weekly during the summer session.

The 1967-68 officers were: President, Earl D. Ludlow; vice presidents, James Preston and Don Q. Milliken; secretary-treasurer, Kenneth Serfass; and historian, Paul O. Selby.

The chief purpose of the international honor fraternity for men in professional education is to promote free public education as an essential to the development and maintenance of a democracy. The organization is based upon the cornerstones of leadership, service, and research.

Following pre-game activities, members of Circle K showed off their trophy for the best float in the Spirit Division of the Homecoming Parade float competition.

Circle K

Chartered in 1967, Circle K International became one of the leading service groups on campus. A branch of Kiwanis, the organization gives its members an opportunity to serve the College as well as to learn.

Augmenting the education of its members, Circle K provided a number of service activities this year. Among these were collecting and sending Christmas cards to servicemen overseas, assisting the local Kiwanis Club in collecting toys for underprivileged children, and ushering at several College events.

Circle K looks forward to many more years of serving their campus, town, and country by following their motto . . . "We build."

Pi Omega Pi

Members of Alpha Chapter of Pi Omega Pi attended a February seminar of Missouri Chapters on the campus of Central Missouri State, Warrensburg. The convocation was entitled "Business Education in the '70's."

Throughout the past year Pi Omega Pi members participated in social and business projects connected with the organization.

A Christmas party was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sprehe, sponsor of Alpha Chapter, for Pi Omega Pi members. The local chapter promoted the sale of Christmas package decorations and homemade candy during the winter quarter.

Charles Baldwin, a Kirksville businessman, addressed the members of the organization on the topic of teacher's aids in the field of business.

During the spring quarter, Alpha Chapter provided refreshments for high school students who participated in the annual spring contests.

Pi Omega Pi, National Business Teacher Education Society, was founded on the College campus in 1932 by Dr. P. O. Selby, Dean Emeritus. The Greek god of Commerce, Hermes, serves as the patron saint of the national organization.

The purpose of Pi Omega Pi is to bring together present and future business educators. It is designed to provide professional fellowship and to strengthen the business profession by sharing common ideas.

Presently Pi Omega Pi has a membership of 28,000 with 123 chapters in 34 states.

Alpha Phi Sigma

The first project of the year for Alpha Phi Sigma national honor fraternity was the presentation of the Centennial tree which now stands on the northeast corner of the Student Union lot.

Alpha Chapter served as host of the biennial national conference of Alpha Phi Sigma officers which was held on the College campus.

Bringing the year's activities to a close was the organization's annual spring banquet during which special recognition was made of several members of the local chapter.

Membership into Alpha Phi Sigma is reached by maintaining a 3.0 or better average for three consecutive quarters. Leadership and good character traits are also qualities sought in the prospective member. Membership is open to students in all academic fields of endeavor.

Kappa Delta Pi

Tau Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi initiated its first honorary member, President F. Clark Elkins, at the final meeting of the fall quarter. Other activities for the year included ushering at the 1967 Alumni Banquet and the annual Spring Banquet to welcome newly initiated members.

Participation in "Operation Christmas" filled the extra hours for members prior to Christmas. Gifts for patients at the State Hospital in Fulton were collected and sent to the hospital.

Kappa Delta Pi was founded on February 24, 1923. Its members are selected on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. To merit selections as a member, a student must have an honor point ratio of at least 3.0, five hours of education courses, and at least 64 semester hours of credit.

Association for Childhood Education

The Association for Childhood Education was an organization for persons majoring in elementary education. The first meeting of the year was a "Get Acquainted" meeting with Dr. Grace McReynolds discussing the various aspects of the organization.

During the year, guests presented helpful hints for beginning teachers, discussed preparation for job interviews, and what to do to get the most out of an individual's student teaching.

Individuals in the association gained a great deal of personal knowledge when they visited and witnessed a first grade classroom, complete with students, in action.

The year's activities culminated with a tea honoring the retiring officers.

Robin Hirashima, vice president of A.C.E., discussed with several members of the organization various schools in the Northeast Missouri area available for student teachers during the past year.

Student National Education Association

The Student National Education Association, a professional association for college and university students planning a teaching career, had a membership of 350 this past year.

Early in September, S.N.E.A. held a Get-Acquainted Dance for all members and prospective members.

Many of the prospective teachers went to St. Louis in November to attend the Missouri State Teachers Association meeting. Also, in November,

S.N.E.A. sponsored a tea for the Kirksville Public School teachers. The event was held in the Student Union.

In April, the S.N.E.A. sent a delegation to the state S.N.E.A. convention to plan for the coming year. Darien Teeter represented the College this year as the State vice-president of S.N.E.A. and was elected president of the state organization for the coming year.

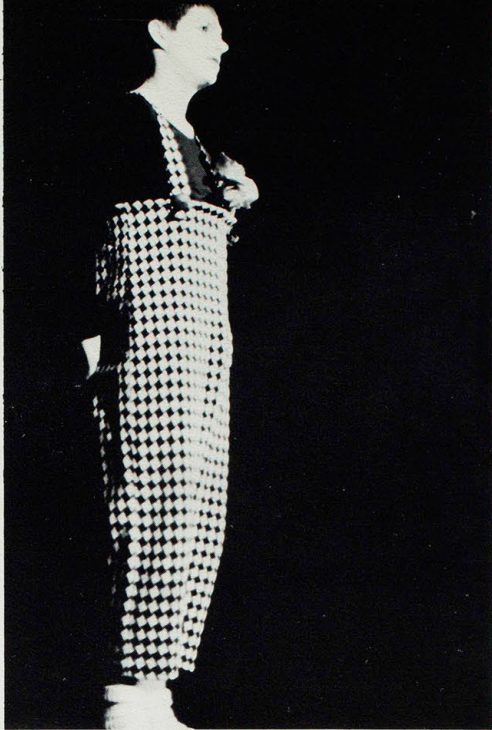

College Players

Five major theatre productions were presented during the past year by the College Players. Showing a variety in technique and an adaptability to several forms of theatre, the College Players displayed their talents in the Broadway musical, "Stop the World I Want to Get Off;" a Greek classic, "Trojan Women;" an ultra-modern comedy, "Luv;" and two student productions.

The College Players also sponsored the Film Club which made available to students and townspeople, a series of eight films of high international acclaim.

Besides performing on the stage, members of the College Players were also responsible for "behind the scene" work which included directing, lighting, costuming, make-up, set building and prop gathering.

Students representing all major fields of study on campus were members of the 1967-68 College Players.

Oral Interpreters

"The Witching Hour" was the title of the first presentation of the year made by the Oral Interpreters Club for a Halloween program. Other readings throughout the year included: "As Much Truth As One Can Bear," a program of contemporary short stories, "The Now-Spirit of Christmas Past," a Langston Hughes hour, and a spring Reader's Theater.

The Oral Interpreters also participated in a storytelling program for children at the Sojourner's Library, reading hours at the Gallery, trips to the Hawthorne Festival and programs at the University of Missouri.

Under the direction of Dr. Elizabeth Worrell, the club presented several programs for organizations both on and off campus. Special presentations were made by the club on closed circuit television for various schools in the Kirksville area.

"The Now-Spirit of Christmas Past" was presented by the Interpreters just before Christmas vacation.

English Club

Entertaining the faculty members of the division of Language and Literature in the Student Union building at an afternoon tea was the highlight of the English Club's activities during 1967-68. In addition to regular business meetings, the club also presented programs which included the reading of original poetry and prose by students and faculty members as well as student panel discussions relating to various types of literature and to experiences and problems encountered in student teaching for English majors.

Organized in December of 1963 under the direction of Dr. Loren Grissom, the English Club was open to all students, faculty, and staff members at the College. All student members of the English Club were enrolled as junior members in the National Council of teachers of English.

A member of the faculty, Mr. James Thomas, presented a program for the English Club.

Spanish Club

Emphasizing both technical work and cultural activities, the Spanish section of the Romance Language Club took active part in providing training and rendering leadership towards stimulating and carrying out free conversation in Spanish. During the year the club presented "Charles," "Danzas," "Poemas," and "Cavciones" to high school students in the area surrounding Kirksville.

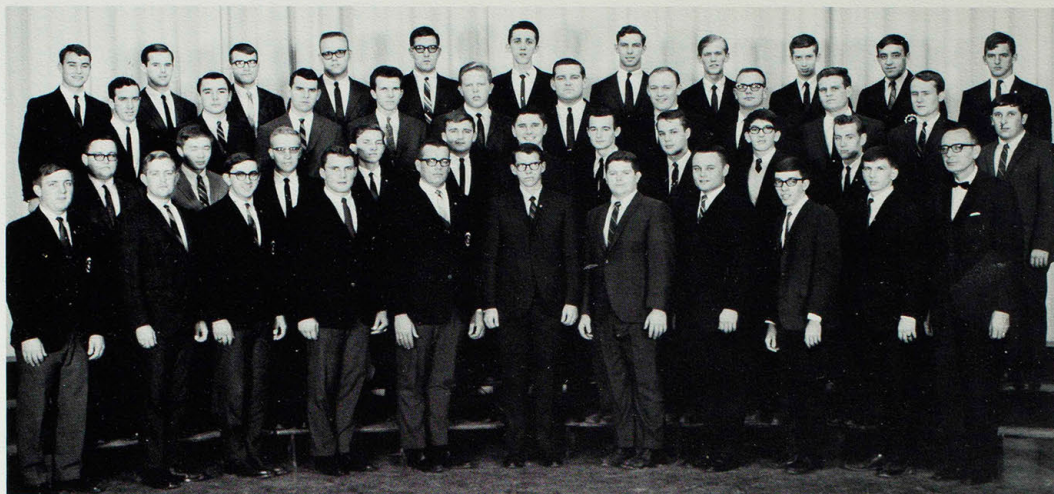

Members of the Spanish Club also helped celebrate the College Centennial by sponsoring a Latin-American Day on the campus with a special Spanish program, and the members also joined to light a flame to the second century of teaching services by exhibiting Spanish teaching materials.

The Spanish section was organized in the fall of 1961 when several students of Spanish, under the direction of Dr. Humberto Alvarez, formed a group to help stimulate understanding of Spanish and Latin-American culture. In the spring of 1962, "El Club Espanol," as a section of the Romance Language Club, was professionally founded.

Several members of the Spanish Club promote better international relations by dressing in the native costumes of Latin America.

Industrial Arts Club

An industrial spring tour of McDonnell Aircraft Corporation, Emerson Electric Company and the St. Louis Shipbuilding Company, all in the St. Louis area, highlighted the year's activities for the Industrial Arts club.

Again this year, the float designed and constructed by the IA Club, placed first in the mechanical division of the Centennial Homecoming parade.

Following the homecoming activities the IA club contributed a great amount of time and labor in helping with the preparation for the Greenwood grade school fun night, which was held on October 30.

Special emphasis was placed on the Open House of the Industrial Arts building during the winter quarter. The IA club provided refreshments and tours of the IA facilities for several hundred campus visitors.

The main objective of the club is to create interest in the field of Industrial Arts for its majors and minors. It is classed as both a professional and social organization.

To join the club, one must have five hours credit in Industrial Arts and a 2.2 overall honor point ratio, with a 2.5 honor point ratio in Industrial Arts. There were 51 active members in the club this past year.

Industrial Arts Club won first place in the mechanical division of float competition of the homecoming parade with "Rolling Up 100 Years of Advancement."

Agriculture Club

Members of the Agriculture Club provided assistance for the district judging contests for the Northeast Missouri high school FFA students who participated in the annual FFA contests. The Club also entered a float in the annual Homecoming parade. The social activities of the year for the Agriculture Club members terminated with a spring picnic held at Thousand Hills State Park.

Throughout the year at their regular meetings, members of the Club listened to various speakers in the field of agriculture and viewed films on similar subjects. The Club members also participated in several tours of productive farms in Northeast Missouri.

The Agriculture Club is a professional-social organization with the purpose of creating interest in various fields of agriculture. Membership is limited to students enrolled in at least one agriculture course.

Members of the Ag. Club welcomed district FFA members to the College campus for the annual Northeast Missouri District FFA meeting.

Colhecon Club

Throughout the academic year, activities for Colhecon members included a get-acquainted hobo party, serving the Parent's Day Tea, constructing a float for the Centennial Homecoming parade, a Christmas party, with Dr. Llorra MaGee as guest speaker, and a spring banquet honoring the senior members of the group.

Membership in the Colhecon Club consists of coeds who are either majoring or minoring in Home Economics. The first "Home Economics Club" was organized in 1912. In 1922, the group was reorganized under the name of Ellen H. Richards Club in honor of the founder of the American Home Economics Association. The name Colhecon was adopted in 1951 and is a contraction of College Home Economics.

Colhecon Club members acted as models for an all-campus fashion show.

Honorary Art Club

The Honorary Art Club began their year's activities by selling mums for the Centennial Homecoming and the designing and construction of their Homecoming float which was titled "100 Years of Change." Throughout the year the club was responsible for displaying pictures done by students in the President's and Dean's offices. The Honorary Art Club also sponsored a traveling water color show which was placed on display during December.

During the early part of this past academic year, the club initiated the largest group of new members in the history of the Honorary Art Club. They also expanded their funds, enrollment and space with new meeting places at the uptown Art Gallery and a meeting room in the Student Union. Social activities during the year included a dinner sponsored by a former art club adviser, Mrs. Nita Patterson, and a Christmas party which was held at the home of Mr. William Unger, this past year's sponsor.

Men's Physical Education Club

In its first full year of operation, the Men's Physical Education Club organized a scholarship along with other forms of recognition for academic excellence and service in the field of physical education. The Club also sponsored a delegation from the college campus to attend the national convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, which was held in St. Louis this past year. In addition, the Club also sponsored a gymnastics exhibition by a group of physical educators from Finland who were on tour in the United States.

The primary function of the Men's Physical Education Club is service to the college and the development of professionalism, leadership and scholarship for men majoring in physical education.

Members of the Men's Physical Education Club participated in acrobatic programs.

Student Nurses Association

An important activity of the Student Nurses Association this past year was the establishment of the J. J. Wimp Scholarship Fund named in honor of Dr. Jesse J. Wimp who died this past year. Dr. Wimp was the husband of Mrs. Sarah Wimp, faculty adviser of the Student Nurses Association. During the year, members of the SNA worked at the nursery school of the Methodist Church in Kirksville and participated in providing assistance at the Bloodmobile, Cerebral Palsy School and Head Start School.

Several of the members attended the state-wide convention held in St. Louis. Cindy Trussell represented the local chapter in state "Student Nurse of the Year" competition.

Barbara Carter demonstrated nursing procedure in the new nursing quarters in Pershing Addition.

K-Club

Promoting good school spirit was the main goal of K-Club, the lettermen's organization on the NMSC campus. To do this, they sponsored dances after the basketball games. K-Club also sponsors the large All-Sports banner displayed on the east wall of Pershing Arena.

To provide funds for the R.E. Valentine Memorial Scholarship, they held their annual candy sale. The scholarship, which is awarded each quarter, goes to the member having the highest honor point ratio for the previous quarter.

Membership in the K-Club is limited to athletes who have earned a letter in one of the varsity sports.

The organization was founded in 1915 to establish and maintain good public relations between athletes and the other students, faculty, and people of Northeast Missouri. To accomplish this goal they have had a united action toward a healthy, enthusiastic promotion of work projects and activities.

Larry Beshears was the recipient of the R. E. Valentine Scholarship for spring quarter last year. John Newcomb presented him with the check fall quarter.

K-Dettes

Precision marching and kick routines by the K-Dettes provided a prodigious amount of entertainment for spectators during halftime shows at various athletic contests during the year.

The first appearance of the K-Dettes this past year was in the Centennial Homecoming parade as they marched to the accompaniment of the Marching 100.

Hampered by inclement weather during the football season, the high-stepping K-Dettes were unable to perform for the gridiron spectators.

As the Bulldog basketball team took to the hardwood, so did the K-Dettes as they presented their first indoor routine at halftime of the initial basketball contest. Several more appearances by the all-girl drill group were made throughout the basketball season.

Practicing several hours a week, the K-Dettes were under the direction of Al Srnka who also served as choreographer for the group.

New uniforms were purchased by the K-Dettes as they assessed each member a 50c per month dues.

Modern Dance is just one of the branches of WRA. Others included are field hockey, archery, basketball, and volleyball.

Women's Recreation Association

The Women's Recreation Association was active throughout the past year as their members comprised the women's field hockey team which compiled a 1-2 record against teams from Quincy, MacMurray, and Culver-Stockton Colleges and a girl's basketball team which played several teams from other colleges in the local area.

Several Sports Days were arranged by the members of WRA throughout the past year inviting colleges from Missouri, Illinois, and Iowa to participate. Other activities for 1967-68 included a Centennial Homecoming breakfast and a spring banquet at which awards were presented for outstanding work in the field of women's physical education and the installation of officers for the coming year.

The primary objectives of the Women's Recreation Association are to provide opportunities in recreational activities, dance, gymnastics, and a variety of sports for all women students of the College.

Physical Education

PEM Club began their activities program for the year by sponsoring a Centennial Homecoming breakfast for members and returning alumnae. The excitement and joy of renewing old friendships was present throughout the morning's meeting.

Another major activity of the Club was sending representatives from the local chapter to the national convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation which was held in St. Louis.

PEM remained active throughout the year with special campus projects which included discussions of company opportunities and experience films in the fields of physical education, the annual Christmas party and several outstanding guest lecturers on physical fitness.

The year's activities came to a close for the PEM Club with the election of new officers for the coming year and the announcement of the recipient of the Sheryl Fullerton Grim Memorial scholarship.

Frances McKinney
Foreign Student Adviser

International Club

Northeast Missouri State College students representing 26 foreign countries throughout the world were members of the International Club this past year. Since being chartered in 1954, the club has grown in membership to over 1,500.

Actively engaged in the many facets of cultural and social life on the College campus, the International students also spent a great deal of their time promoting world friendship and understanding among all students by sponsoring several special projects.

Their list of activities for 1967-68 included: an International Variety Show for the student body; the annual Christmas dinner given by Joe Burdman; an International Christmas dance; and the annual International spring banquet which brought together foods from each of the represented foreign countries for all members and invited guests.

John Lutz presents interesting program to Historical Society members during monthly meeting.

Historical Society

Highlighting the past academic year for the Historical Society was an all-school open discussion program on the topic of "The Use of LSD." A panel comprised of members of the medical profession and psychology instructors presented to the audience the pros and cons for using or not using LSD. An open discussion forum with the audience participating followed the remarks made by the panel.

Under the direction of Dr. Gilbert Kohlenberg, the Historical Society presented several other lectures and programs during the year which were open to the entire campus. Topics for these discussions varied from history to the United States' possibilities of surviving a thermonuclear attack.

The Eugene M. Violette Chapter of the Historical Society was founded in November of 1906. Membership was open to any collegian or faculty member who wished to associate with others who share his interests in history.

Psychology Club

One of the newly established clubs on campus during the past year was the Psychology Club which began with 53 charter members.

Psychology majors and minors organized the group in an attempt to initiate, promote, facilitate and supplement an integrated working knowledge and understanding of some of the principles of the interrelated fields of psychology.

Activities during the year included related field trips and speakers as well as individual member presentations.

The aims of the Psychology Club throughout the year were to foster the clarification and exchange of ideas and creativity of its members and offer fellowship to those having a professional, intellectual interest in psychology.

Following his discussion Dr. Thomas Higgins explained a reproduction of one of Chopin's original manuscripts to Paul Halferty and Pam Drummmond.

Philosophy Club

Informative discussions on racial problems and the "new morality" highlighted the year for the Philosophy Club. Jerry Johnson, NMSC student, led the group on the discussion of the racial problems, while Henry Gibson and Dr. H. Chandler Monroe of the College faculty presented the liberal and conservative views respectively of morality in their programs.

"College as Career Preparation or Intellectual Pursuit" was the title of the program led by President F. Clark Elkins. Dean A. L. Fritschel expressed the philosophy of "Existentialism" at one of the club's meetings.

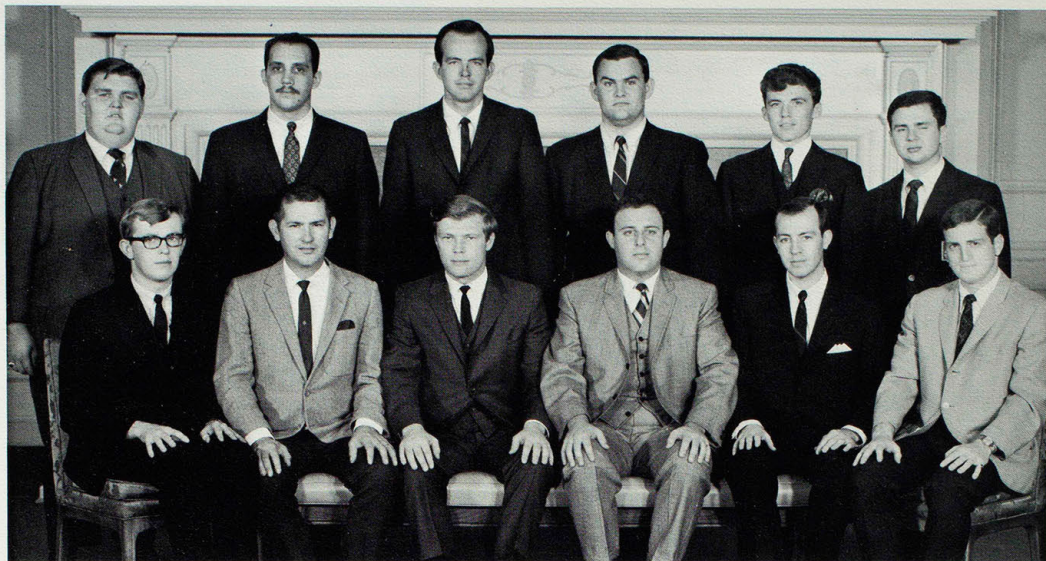

"Philosophy and Music of Chopin" was the topic of Dr. Thomas Higgins' presentation, while "Semantics and Life" was the discussion presented by Dr. Glenda Clyde.

The purpose of the Philosophy Club is to bring together views of different disciplines to discover differences and similarities. The programming was designed to encourage membership from many students in diversified fields.

Pre-Law Club

Reorganized this past fall quarter under the sponsorship of Clyde Burch, College attorney and faculty member, the Pre-Law Club brought several notable speakers in the broad field of law which included constitutional, international, civil, criminal, corporation, law enforcement and penalization, to the campus. A special field trip to the State capitol of Missouri and a personal observation study of the Smith murder trial were two highlights of the activities for the year by the members of the Pre-Law Club.

Club members also participated in a mock trial jury with the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery and took part in observing Law Day this past spring.

The purpose of the organization as stated by the constitution is, "to provide prospective attorneys of Northeast Missouri College and other interested students with an organization through which they can acquire knowledge pertinent to the law and/or the preparation and subsequent practice of the legal profession."

Members of the Pre-Law Club talked with James Duffey, FBI Agent in Residence in Hannibal, who spoke to the members of the Club about the history of the FBI.

Young Democrats

The 1968 national political campaign was the topic which the regular meetings of the Young Democrats Club were centered around this past year. The members of the organization brought to the campus several speakers in the field of political science who gave their interpretations and views on the national political scene.

Chartered in 1960, the Young Democrats Club was the first chartered political organization on the NMSC campus for the advancement of a national party organization's welfare. This past year they carried out their national affiliation by providing assistance with the local headquarters during the national campaign.

Presiding over meetings of the Young Democrats on campus this year was Darien Teeter. He is pictured discussing with several members of the organization the basic layout of the club and proposals for the year's activities.

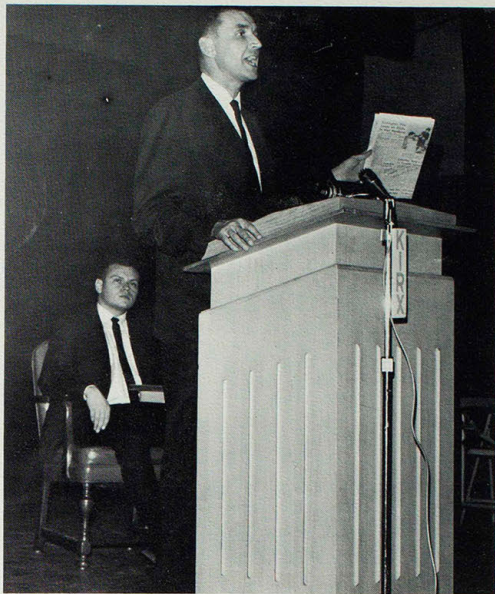

Young Republicans

Kirkville's Young Republicans completed another successful year with a variety of speakers and activities and an emphasis on returning America to Basic Constitutional government.

Among the recognized speakers of the year were Missouri Congressman Tom Curtis, Republican author John Stormer, State Representative Cloy Whitney, and Congressman John Kyl of Iowa. The Young GOP's also participated in panel discussions and symposiums designed to create a political awareness among the membership.

One of the primary goals of the club was the integration with the Adair County Republican Committee. The Young Republicans worked closely with the county organization not only to help the senior party members with their political endeavors, but to give the junior party members valuable political experience.

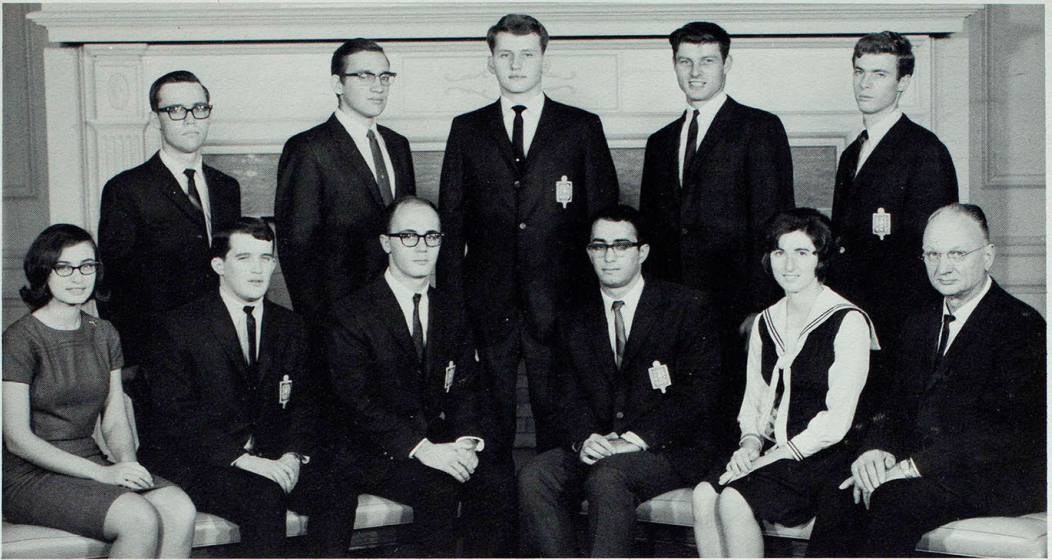

Republican author John Stormer spoke on campus during fall quarter.

Members of Sigma Zeta experiment with new equipment.

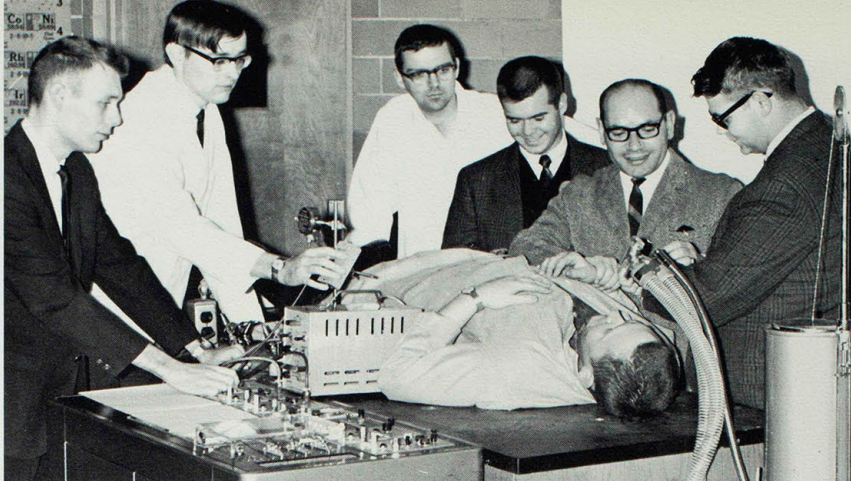

Sigma Zeta

Monthly meetings with guest speakers presenting programs in various fields of scientific interest were featured throughout the year by Sigma Zeta fraternity. Culminating the year's activities was the annual spring banquet given in honor of the newly initiated members.

The Delta Chapter of Sigma Zeta is the national honorary science and math society on campus. Active membership is open to junior and senior science or math majors who have maintained a high honor point ratio. Associate membership is extended to freshman and sophomore students who have the potential of attaining active membership requirements.

The objectives of the organization are to encourage continuing advancements in the fields of science and mathematics, to promote and recognize scholastic achievement, and to foster friendly social activities.

Pre-Osteopathic students spent many hours learning to use new equipment.

Pre-Osteopathic Club

Members of the Pre-Osteopathic Club centered their activities primarily around professionalism aimed in the direction of medicine. Some of the activities included human anatomy demonstrations at the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery; demonstrations and lectures by visiting professional men; and a series of professional movies.

The social program of the Club included the annual Christmas Banquet and the spring picnic at Thousand Hills State Park. Several members also engaged in activities sponsored by the fraternities at KCOS.

The primary purpose of the club is to provide for its members, as future doctors, new ways to prepare themselves for their responsibilities as future physicians.

Student Amateur Radio Club

Of prime importance during the past year for the newly established Student Amateur Radio Club was the providing of communications during the Homecoming parade and the receiving of the club's official amateur radio license WA/QWW.

Successful transmission of communications with numerous countries throughout the world as well as communication with various stations across the continental United States highlighted the activities of the radio club.

The Student Amateur Radio Club regularly conducted classes in radio theory, communications, and telegraphy in order to prepare members of the club so that they might qualify for specific licenses granted by the Federal Communications Commission. Members have access to precision radio-telephone and telegraph equipment.

Members of Beta Tau Delta took active part in initiation in December. In conjunction with the initiation the old and new members participated in the annual Christmas party given by the organization.

Beta Tau Delta

Beta Tau Delta sorority and Beta Tau Alpha fraternity, a national educational college co-organization for baton twirlers and drum majors, was under the leadership of Claudia Burkhart, president. Mary Evelyn Thurman, instructor in baton twirling, again served the organization as sponsor.

Initiation for new members into Beta Tau Delta and Beta Tau Alpha was again held this year in conjunction with the annual Christmas party.

The local chapters were founded in 1959 on the NMSC campus by Miss Thurman under the guidance of Dr. Walter H. Ryle and Dr. P. O. Selby.

The organizations have as objectives upholding professional ethics, scholastic attainment and establishing a perpetual bond of friendship among members. Activities are stationed around their motto, "where twirling links learning to living."

Aeolian Club

A variety of activities ranging from recitals to picnics highlighted the past year for the members of the Aeolian Club. Affiliated with the National Music Educators Association, members of the Aeolian Club carried out their annual practice of sponsoring receptions following senior student recitals. Assisting with the annual spring music festival and attendance at the spring banquet brought to a close the year's activities for the Aeolian Club.

The local chapter of the Aeolian Club, as its national office requires, is a social professional organization made up of students majoring in music and those interested in music education. The advisor of the club this past year was Mrs. Claudine Triplett of the Fine Arts Division.

College Band

Under the direction of Tom Duden, the College Band provided various audiences with outstanding musical arrangements throughout the year.

During the football season, the members of the band performed at halftimes; and when the basketball season opened, a pep band was formed from within the members of the College band.

A week long tour of Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois was culminated by a concert in the College Auditorium.

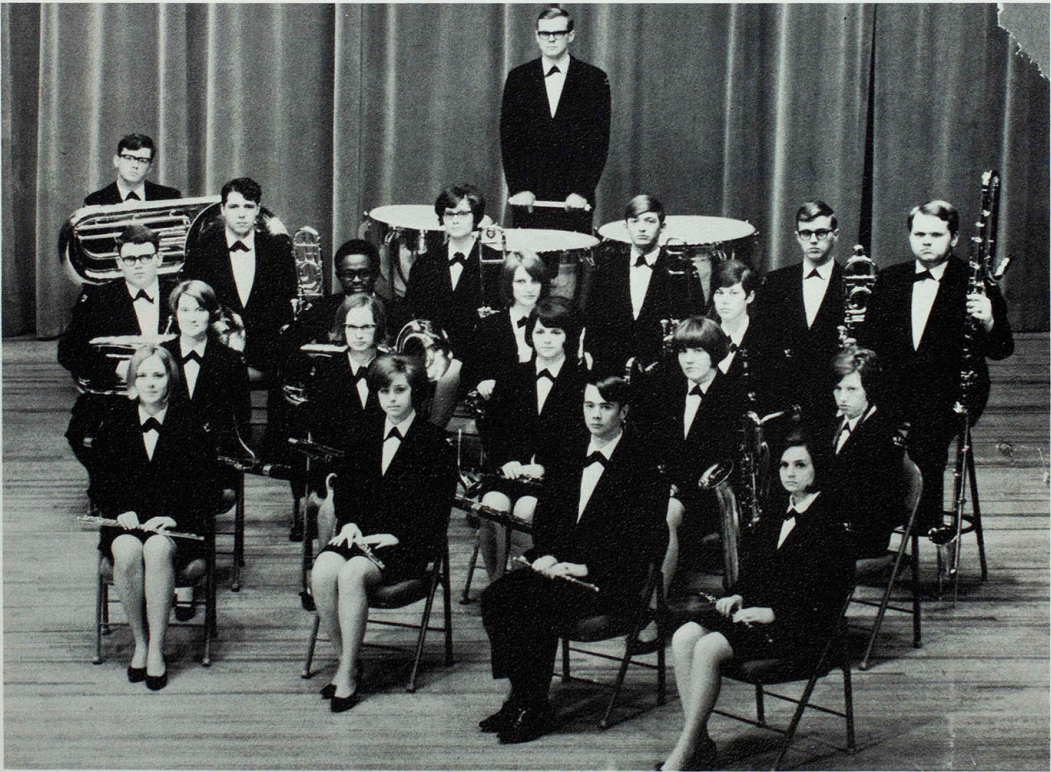

With the assistance of graduate student, Connie Meeker, the band made special appearances at the Inaugural Ceremonies, the annual Spring Concert, and the 1968 spring commencement exercises.

The "Marching 100" was under the field direction of Drum Majorette Suzanne Robb and Drum Major Richard Bowers. Karna Kruckenburg was again the featured baton twirler.

College Orchestra

Under the baton of William FitzSimmons, the College Symphony Orchestra presented concert programs throughout the year for students, faculty members and others interested in concerto programs.

The Orchestra season opened in the fall with a program which included the Beethoven Eroica Symphony, the Brahms Variations on a theme of Joseph Haydn and Mahlers Song Cycle, Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen.

The winter quarter concert featured seven student soloists who were selected for their outstanding work in the field of music over the past year. They included Elizabeth Payton, Yasuhiro Shibata, James Worrell, Sharon Lee, Gary Crank, and Lynne Wolf.

The program during the winter quarter featured selections by such famous composers as Mendelssohn, and Verdi.

Activities of the spring quarter for the Symphony Orchestra began with a joint presentation by the Orchestra, NEMO Singers, and the College Chorus of Mozart Vespers Services and a Mass in G by Schubert.

The final concert of the year featured Robert Mason of the Fine Arts faculty, violin cellist, playing the Bocherini Concerto in C Major. The Orchestra performed the Fifth Symphony by Tchaikovsky.

Symphony Orchestra director, William FitzSimmons.

NEMO Singers

Performances for Parent's Day, Homecoming Queen Coronation and the Inaugural Ceremonies for Dr. F. Clark Elkins, were the highlights of the NEMO Singers for the academic year of 1967-68.

Representing the College on the community scene, the NEMO's performed for the Sojourner's Club, for the First Baptist Church in Macon, and gave a special television concert on KTVO-TV in Ottumwa, Iowa.

At the request of the management of the Opera House in What Cheer, Iowa, a complete performance of the Candlelight Concert was given at the Opera House on December 14. The annual three-day Choir tour and spring concert capped the year's activities. Originally a group of 25 students called the Acapella Choir, the organization was started by Dr. Barrett Stout in 1932. The Acapella Choir became the Light Opera Singers in 1946 under the direction of Miss Phradie Wells and was reorganized in 1950 as a part of the College band.

In 1958, Dr. Stephen Hobson formed what became the present NEMO Singers, which now numbers 60 of the most talented singers on campus. The group was under the direction of Clay Dawson this past academic year.

Clarinet and Brass Choirs

Under the direction of Dr. Richard Weerts and Dr. Harold Copenhaver, the College Brass and Clarinet Choirs began their activities on a tri-state tour during the Thanksgiving holiday.

Now in its ninth year of development, the Clarinet Choir has grown from a small number of clarinets to a fully instrumentalized clarinet choir. The Brass Choir, however, is only in its third year of development. Members are selected by audition. Both have performed on television, radio, and have appeared at the Missouri Music Education State convention.

During the summer of 1967, the Clarinet Choir performed at Expo '67 in Montreal, Canada. Other achievements of the Clarinet Choir included presentations at the National Conference of the Music Educators National Convention in 1966 and six concerts presented at the New York World's Fair in 1965.

Members of the Brass Choir joined the NEMO Singers when performing at President F. Clark Elkin's Inauguration. A Christmas presentation was also given by the Brass Choir and NEMO Singers on KTVO-TV and at Northeast Missouri State College.

Elementary Majors Chorus

Throughout the year members of the Elementary Majors Chorus strived to learn more about music and music techniques on the elementary level.

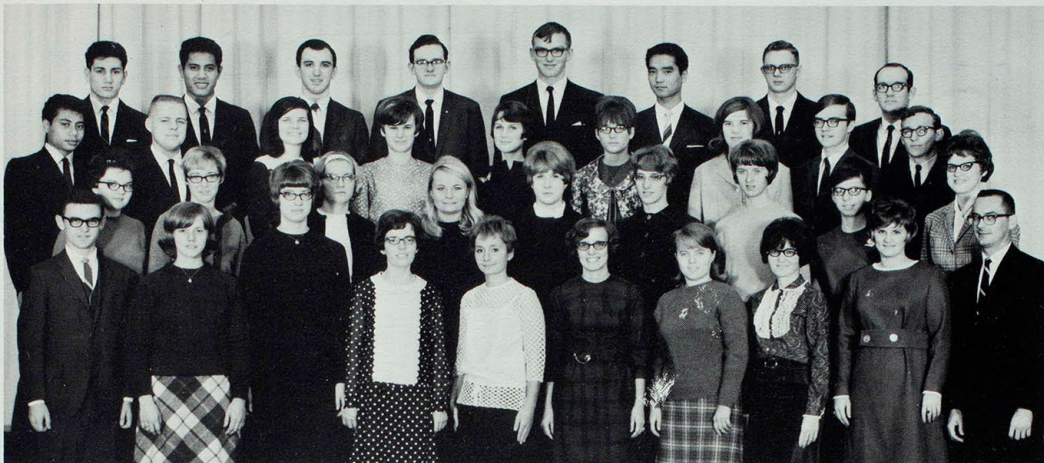

The chorus made several personal appearances during the year including a television show during the Christmas season when they performed several of the popular Christmas carols.

Developing choral techniques, increasing sight reading ability and providing repertoire appropriate for elementary schools and college women's groups were the primary aims of the Elementary Majors Chorus during the past year. Application and hard work by the members gained them a great deal of practical experience which they will find useful in their futures as elementary majors.

Members of the Elementary Majors Chorus, under the direction of Claudine Triplett, practiced regularly various techniques that would be used in the classroom as elementary majors instructing students in choral work.

Wesley Foundation

Major activities of the Wesley Foundation for the past year, under the direction of Rev. Richard Todd, included sponsoring the annual family supper at the First Methodist church, work retreat, and planning a tentative program for the Methodist campus center.

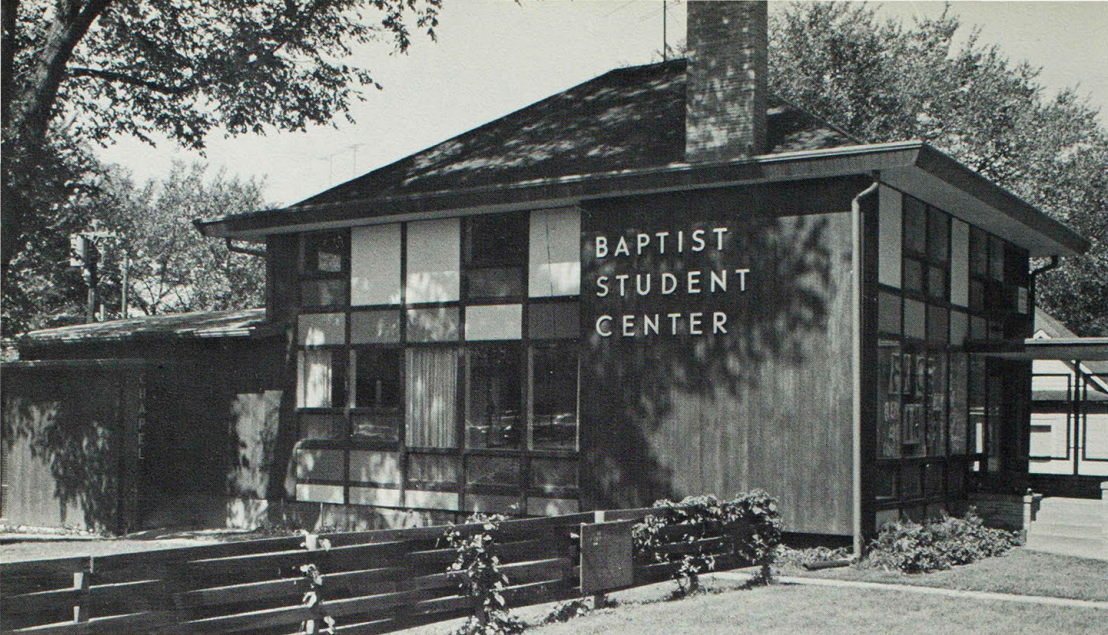

The religious aspects of the Wesley Foundation cover discussions on dealing with personal commitment, campus life, and Christian vocations.

The goal of the Wesley Foundation during the past year was to allow the members of the academic community to discover the values and precepts necessary for a greater fulfillment that they might view from a Christian prospective their world both within themselves and outside themselves in the college community.

Members of the Wesley Foundation enhanced their spiritual lives through regular attendance at the First Methodist Church of Kirksville. Several Wesley members participated in the Methodist choir.

Opened February, 1958, the Baptist Student Center has served the college community through ten years at 712 South Marion. With continued college expansion, a relocation is imminent.

Baptist Student Union

A special week of emphasis was held during February to help commemorate the tenth anniversary of the Baptist Student Center which opened its doors February 9, 1958. Students and faculty both participated in the anniversary celebration.

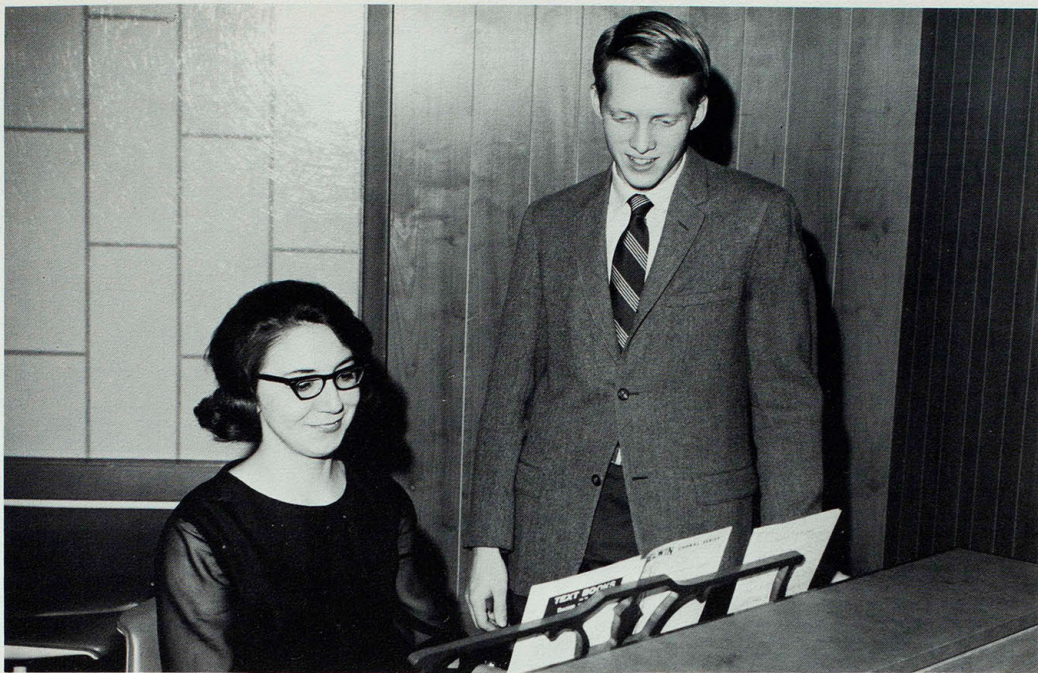

The Baptist Student Center was led by Ken Green who assumed the presidency of the organization following the induction of W. T. Davidson, Jr. into the United States Air Force. The opening of the school year found B. S. U. actively engaged in float building for the Centennial Homecoming and preparation of activities in celebration of the 1967 homecoming. Many students on the campus made active use of the Baptist Student Center.

Throughout the year, the B. S. U. choir sang weekly at the First Baptist Church. Jerilyn Keim was responsible throughout the year for the planning of the bi-weekly vesper series.

Highlighting the coming summer for the Baptist Student Union will be the attendance at the Baptist World Youth Conference in July, which will take ten students from Kirksville to Europe for three weeks of travel and conference.

For the Centennial Homecoming, the Baptist Student Union's float entry was "Conquering Ignorance Since 1867."

Newman Club

Mass was held each Sunday morning at 11:30 at the newly acquired Newman Center on West Dodson by Father Luke Reichert.

Over 100 Catholic students on the College campus were active members of the Newman Club during the past year.

Under the direction of Father Luke Reichert, the Newman Club moved to their new center located just west of the main campus. At the center, the Newmanites held their weekly meetings, special programs, and discussion nights. "Folk" Masses were celebrated each Sunday.

With religion foremost in mind, the members participated in several retreats and were actively engaged in panel discussions on various religious topics.

The social program for the Newmen Club included numerous picnics, the pancake and sausage breakfast and the faculty-fun night.

The Newman Club was founded on the campus in 1955 and thus is one of the oldest religious groups on campus.

Gamma Delta

Ministers of the Mormon, Episcopal and Methodist churches were on campus to present programs for the Lutheran sponsored Gamma Delta organization this past year. The representatives of each of the churches discussed the various outlooks of their respective denominations concerning world affairs of the present time.

During its 11th year on the campus, the members of Gamma Delta participated in a district retreat at Meremac State Park, a district leadership conference at Kansas City, and the United Campus Christian Fellowship.

Gamma Delta also sponsored International Student Night during which the international students on the campus were given special recognition.

A square dance terminated the year's social activities for Gamma Delta members.

Under the guidance of Rev. Mark Appold, pastoral advisor, Delta Xi chapter of Gamma Delta provided a variety of activities for its members with a Christian atmosphere throughout the year.

Faith Lutheran Church was the scene of many Gamma Delta gatherings.

Panhellenic Council

Sorority unity on the College campus has been governed during the past year by the local chapter of the National Panhellenic Council. The Council was made up of three representatives from each of the four national sororities on the campus with Miss Rita Gramann as faculty advisor.

One of the main functions of the Council during the year was the supervision of rush activities designed to further the ideals of the sorority member. During the fall quarter Panhellenic President Margaret Reighard met with prospective rushees during an explanatory assembly. At the time of registration for all sorority rushees, each girl was given a handbook explaining the rules of rush season.

Social activities sponsored by the Panhellenic Council included the Rush Tea and the Scholarship Banquet. The Sunday afternoon tea was held for all prospective rushees. Each sorority then presented short skits and displayed their various sorority paraphernalia.

Interfraternity Council

Governing and conducting fraternity rush and sign-up were the two major responsibilities of the Interfraternity Council during 1967-68. One-hundred men pledged the seven national fraternities during the winter quarter.

To be eligible for pledgship, a student must carry at least a 2.0 scholastic average and must be in good standing with the College administration. Pledge season came to a close at the end of the winter quarter with individuals becoming active members of their respective fraternity.

Greek Week, co-sponsored by the Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council, provided four days of joint activities under the symbol that fraternities and sororities were founded—"brotherhood." A bonfire, cheering in a block, special assembly, dance and the Greek Olympics were featured activities of the week.

The Interfraternity Council was composed of three representatives from each of the five member organizations: Alpha Kappa Lambda, Kappa Alpha Psi, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Sigma Tau Gamma and Tau Kappa Epsilon.

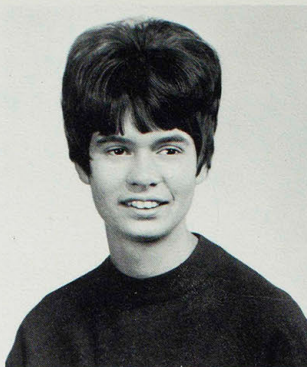

Representatives from two national colonies were also on the IFC. The colonizing fraternities were Beta Sigma Psi and Phi Kappa Theta.

A significant accomplishment of the Interfraternity was the sponsorship of several all-school concerts which brought several "big names" in the entertainment field to the campus.

Alpha Sigma Alpha commenced the 1967-68 academic year by entertaining fall quarter rushees at the annual "Alphatraz" and "Southern Array with ASA" rush parties.

Alpha Beta members served in key positions across the campus. Jeanie Coy Auseon was secretary of the Student Council and Marsha Mossbarger, Susan Gulnac and Beth West were elected as class officers.

Debbie Hansbrough of Alpha Sigma Alpha was crowned queen of the Missouri State Fair which was held in Sedalia. She was also chosen to represent the College at the American Royal in Kansas City.

Centennial Homecoming was highlighted by the election of Claudia Burkhart as Homing attendant and the alumnae banquet at the Shamrock Inn. Fifty Alpha's carried the sorority Homecoming float down Franklin Avenue as their legs symbolized the centipede. Their slogan was "Worming Our Way to Victory."

Alpha Sigma Alpha became affiliated with Kappa Theta Psi in 1914 with the initiation of 50 co-eds. The original sorority, Kappa Theta Psi, was founded in 1899.

Combinations of activity, honor, service and scholarship led Delta Sigma chapter of Delta Zeta through its 39th year at NMSC. The traditional Rose Garden terminated formal rush season with 18 co-eds pledging the sisterhood of Delta Zeta.

Efforts of actives and new pledges were rewarded as Delta Zeta captured first place in the annual Greek Olympics. Other activities included the annual pledge-active party and the pledge skip to Missouri University at St. Louis.

Delta Sigma chapter honored President F. Clark Elkins as Delta Zeta Dad of the Year. Members also participated in College intramurals, provided assistance in the annual Easter Seal Drive, held the traditional Mother's Day Tea, and provided leadership in many campus organizations.

Diane Cushman and Joann Zeigler were two members of Delta Zeta selected to "Who's Who."

Iota chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority was founded on the College campus in January 1921. In 1956 Delta Sigma Epsilon merged with Delta Zeta sorority and Iota chapter and became Delta Sigma chapter of Delta Zeta sorority.

Highlighting the year for Sigma Kappa sorority was a clean sweep of the three major on-campus trophies awarded for an entry in the Centennial Homecoming parade. The winning float, "Sig Kappa-Delic Time Tunnel," received the trophy for beauty, the Centennial "best float" trophy, and the traveling cup for the best all-around float.

In their ninth year on the College campus, Sigma Kappa's pledged seventeen co-eds. Rush parties included "Sig Kap Casino" and "Pearl Party."

Delta Theta chapter was represented in various queen contests by Jo Goldman, Joleen Fox, Nancy Lammert, Rivers Bartow, Pat Reilly and Karladine Thurman. Social activities for Sigma Kappa included the annual tea held by Sig Kap pledges of other sororities; a "Roaring 20's" party given by the pledge class for active members; the annual Mother-Daughter Weekend; and Standards Emphasis Week during which program for self-improvement were held.

The sorority showed its appreciation to the fraternities for their help during rush season by cleaning up the various fraternity houses.

Sigma Kappa's were active in many organizations on the campus. They also contributed their services to the Kirksville community by assisting in various civic projects. The sorority as a whole contributed 33 pints of blood to the Red Cross Blood Drive.

Delta Theta also was host to chapters from Kansas, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri at the first Sigma Kappa State Day in Missouri. The "Rally" included a fashion show of various chapters uniforms, round table discussions and a banquet.

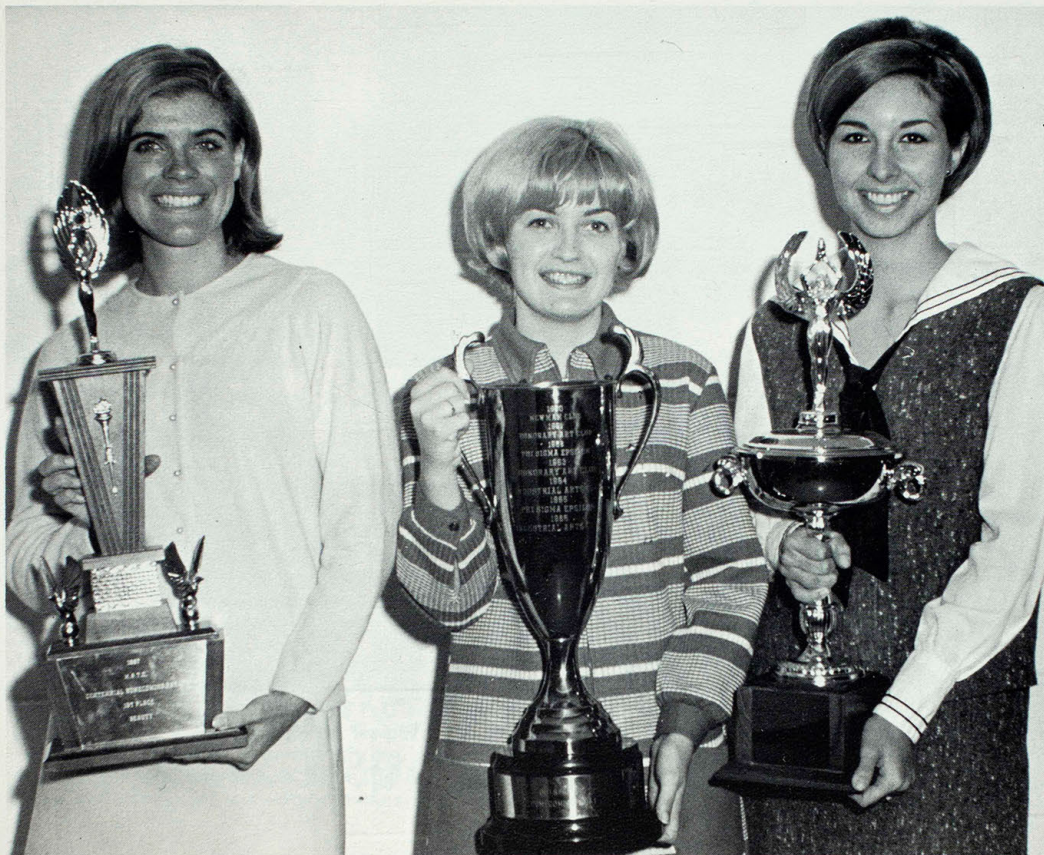

Concluding the year was the Sigma Kappa formal dance which was held in the Student Union activities room and featured Spanish decor.

Sigma Sigma Sigma was awarded both the President's and the Centennial scholarship cups at the annual Panhellenic banquet. The sorority compiled an honor point average of 2.800.

Highlights of the rush season for the sorority were two parties, "Mai-Kai" and "Sigma Spotlight." A fall pledge class of 16 was the result of intensive rushing activities.

Donna Carlson of Sigma Sigma Sigma was elected Centennial Homecoming attendant. On the national level in competition with other chapters of Sigma Sigma Sigma, Mu chapter ranked fifth in efficiency out of the sixty-six chapters, and it was named to the Robbie Page Memorial Honor Roll (the national philanthropic project).

On campus, the sorority was well represented in various organizations by placing members of the sorority in key positions. Several members of the sorority were selected as fraternity Sweethearts.

Sigma Sigma Sigma contributed and supported community projects such as the March of Dimes fund drive, the United Fund drive, and the annual Bread Drive.

Social activities include a "2 plus 2" dance; sponsorship of two all-school dances; the annual Founders Day in April; and closing the social year was the annual spring formal.

The sorority mourned the death of Viola McGee, a long-time advisor of the local chapter, who died this past year.

Ken Kerckoff

Under the banner of the Xi chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity, "America's dynamic fraternity of individuality," president Ken Kerckoff led Alpha Kappa Lambda through another successful year of growth and progress.

The men of Xi chapter selected Sandy Hulsebus as 1967 AKL Sweetheart. Several members of the fraternity participated in athletics on the campus. They included Ron Selkirk on the varsity tennis team, who has the distinction of being the first player in the history of the College to win the first single division of the MIAA conference; and he was also a member of the doubles conference championship team. Tim Urban was a member of the Bulldog football squad, while Chuck Peterson and Mike Hardy participated on the varsity baseball team.

On campus, AKL's provide leadership in many different areas. John Clark served as councilman of the freshman class; Allen Petefish was president of the Agriculture Club; Ken Kielty and Dean Nickens were officers of the Young Democrats Club, and Gary Peterson, selected to "Who's Who," served as vice-president of the Young Republicans Club.

The annual spring formal, "Old Gold," climaxed the year for Alpha Kappa Lambda, which celebrated its 15th anniversary on the Northeast Missouri State College campus.

Kappa Alpha Psi

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity moved into their fraternity house this past fall to begin the academic year. A thorough removation both inside and out of the house was carried out by the active chapter during the summer months in preparation for the opening of school. Brothers of Epsilon Eta chapter are distinguished in campus organizations and varsity athletic competition. The fraternity sponsored teams in Intramural competition in the annual Blue Key Campus Bowl.

The local chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on the College campus in 1963. Nationally, the fraternity now has 260 chapters and 53,000 members.

Phi Kappa Theta

Phi Kappa Theta became the newest fraternity on the College campus as they began their first full year, which began in September of 1967.

The brothers of Mu Sigma chapter initiated 19 pledges during the fall and winter quarters. The fraternity made significant contributions to the campus and community, and they participated in the Intramural program.

The first annual spring formal for Mu Sigma chapter ended the social activities for 1967-68.

Phi Kappa Theta members began the school year by painting and redecorating the interior and exterior of their fraternity house.

Capturing the Blue Key Campus Bowl championship was one of many highlites over the past year for Gamma chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon. During the 1967-68 academic year, Gamma chapter was under the sponsorship of Dr. Joseph Dolan and Gail Albright. Under their leadership the fraternity continued to carry out its objectives of encouraging college spirit, fostering culture, and perpetuating friendship and intimate social ties within its membership.

Gamma men not only contributed leadership and assistance to the college campus, but rendered their services, also, to the Kirksville community by participating in such activities as collecting for the United Fund, March of Dimes, and bell ringing for the Salvation Army during the Christmas season.

On campus Phi Sigma Epsilon members held offices in each class including presidencies in the Graduate and Senior classes.

In athletics, Phi Sigma Epsilon placed twelve men on the varsity football team, five on the baseball squad, and two on the track team. They were also top contenders for the all-school intramural sports. Eighteen men pledged Gamma chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon during the regular fall rush season. The social highlite of the rush season was the annual Apache Dance.

"Leadership through integrity" again proved to be an apt motto for Beta Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma as members made significant contributions to the College campus, the community and to their own personal development.

Beta men provided traditional leadership in various campus organizations. Mike Trent was editor of the ECHO and advertising manager of the Index. Dale Barrett was the assistant editor of the ECHO.

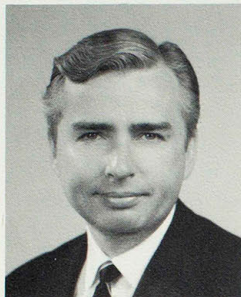

Class leaders included Bob Moore as councilman of the senior class; Jack Niemier acted as president of the junior class; and Jim Arico was vice president of the sophomore class.

Beta Chapter again was a top contender for the all-school intramural sports championship as they tried to retain the trophy won by Beta in 1966-67.

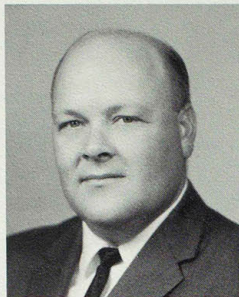

Four members of Beta Chapter received the honor of being named to "Who's Who." Those men selected were Ed Phelps, Rich Rider, Jim Sefrit, and Mike Trent.

The social events of the year began with the annual "49ers" rush dance and culminated with the annual "White Rose" spring formal.

As the 1967-68 academic year opened, Iota Gamma chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon occupied their newly refurbished and redecorated fraternity house.

Tau Kappa Epsilon reigned as the fall quarter tug of war champions in the intramural program. They placed third in the Homecoming float competition and were number one in the Greek Olympics held during the winter quarter.

As in the past, Tau Kappa Epsilon members made significant contributions to the campus and to the community of Kirksville. Through April of 1968 members of the fraternity had donated over 500 pints of blood to the annual Kirksville Blood Bank. They also assisted various charity organizations in the city.

On campus members of Iota Gamma chapter served as class officers and organization leaders.

Braden Assumed Duties as New Football Coach

New head coach, Marv Braden, assumed full responsibility this season as he replaced the veteran "Red" Wade. In what was primarily a rebuilding year, the new mentor led the Bulldog eleven to a tie for third place in the M.I.A.A. Conference.

Coach Braden came to the Northeast Missouri State campus from Parsons College where he was backfield coach. Braden believed that pride and self-respect were the mainstay of any athlete and without these two important characteristics a man was nothing.

Braden expected the men on his team to conduct themselves in a manner and behavior of a true athlete. He maintained that fitting behavior brings respect to a school.

Backfield coach Bill Richerson, head coach Marv Braden, and line coach Kenny Gardner discussed game strategy on many occasions in guiding the Bulldogs to a successful football season.

Bulldog tri-captains Rick Cash, John Newcomb, and Rick Gorzynski talk over game plans with head football coach Marv Braden.

A new aspect for the Bulldog football team came in the selection of team captains. Instead of the usual two men, the squad had the triple representation in tri-captains Rick Cash, Rick Gorzynski, and John Newcomb.

Cash was a stalwart at the tackle spot while Newcomb was a top receiver for the gridders. The third man, Gorzynski, was the field general at the quarterback slot.

The Bulldogs got off to a slow start by dropping the first two games. Gorzynski was injured, and even with the great job done by Don Cummings, the Bulldogs couldn't seem to find the winning combination. The third game, however, seemed to be the one they had been waiting for as Mike Bielic booted the ball through the uprights for the extra point and a NMSC victory over Pittsburg State.

The men evened the count up at two and two by whipping Wisconsin State on a rain soaked, muddy field. Back to the drawing board it was as the Dogs dropped their conference opener and the Hickory Stick to the Maryville Bearcats. Much the underdog, Kirksville sprang back to defeat the favored Springfield Bears and once again evened their record at three and three.

Warrensburg's stunning offense proved too much for the Bulldogs to handle even on Homecoming as the Mules dowsed the Kirksville eleven and smudged their conference record to one win against two losses.

An outstanding defensive exhibition along with a whirling snow proved to be too much for the Rolla Miners as the Kirksville gridders won their fourth and last game in the '67 campaign. The following week the Bulldogs suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of Cape Girardeau's Indians to wind up the season with a four and five season record and a two and three conference standing.

Three NMSC gridders were named to the MIAA All-Conference football squad for the 1967 season. Filling the end slot on the offensive team was John Newcomb, tri-captain and senior from East Aurora, Ill. John did an excellent job in the receptions department setting up many touchdowns with his outstanding pass-catching abilities.

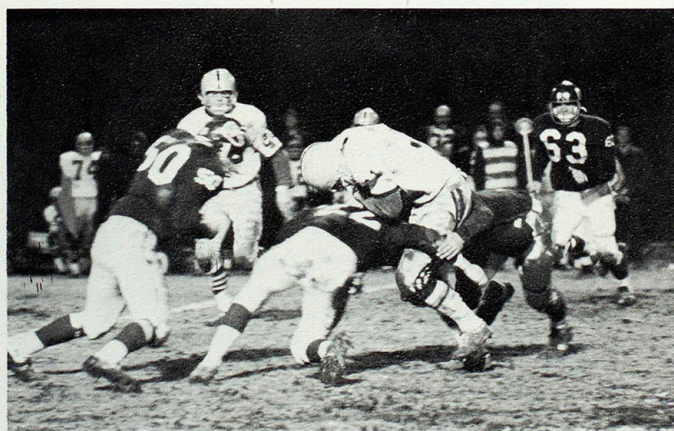

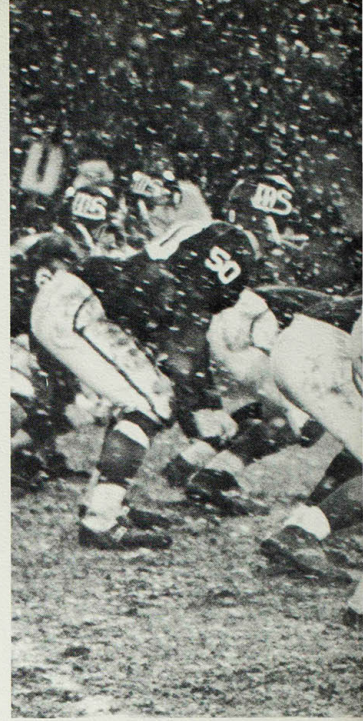

Freshman Ken Bebermeyer tied down the end position on the defensive squad gaining recognition for his hustle and alertness on the gridiron. His punt block and subsequent recovery in the end-zone in the Rolla game are indicative of his hustle and desire.

Jerry Meyer, defensive half-back on the Bulldog eleven, was the third selection to the first team, All-Conference squad. Meyer earned his first team berth as a defensive demon and a stalwart in the defensive secondary. Meyer, a junior, played his high-school ball in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Kirkville also had five members of the football team named to the MIAA All-Conference alternate squads. Halfback Rich Reeves and quarterback, Rick Gorzynski were the two men named to the backfield team. Tackle Jim Farrell and guards Mike Bielie and Frank Wagner were also recognized by being named to the alternate squads.

Bulldog Harrier Named All-American 3rd Time

All-American Bulldog, Ron Werling, broke everything but the sound barrier as he led the Cross Country squad to a respectable second place conference finish. The three-time All-American athlete completed his final year of collegiate competition with a tremendous effort, finishing 10th in the nation in the College N.C.A.A. meet at Wheaton, Ill. A standout all three years on the harrier team, he placed 12th, 11th, and 10th respectively his sophomore, junior, and senior years in national competition.

Regarded by his coach as one of "the finest student-athletes to attend Northeast Missouri State," Werling won individual honors in every meet with the exception of the Springfield Invitational and the dual meet with Western Illinois.

Winston Churchill was obviously not the only man to use the "V" for victory. Ron Werling strained to cut that last tenth of a second from his time as he crossed the finish line well ahead of the second place man.

Captain of the Cross Country team, Ron Werling, talked with Coach Tom Songster in a pre-meet conference. Perhaps meet strategy was the purpose of the conference, or possibly Coach Songster was simply advising Werling to loosen up and keep the other members of the squad relaxed.

Discipline, Training, Desire Earmark a Winning Season

Strict discipline, rigid training, and an overwhelming desire to win was Coach Tom Songster's team's guide as they sped their way to a successful season.

After losing six lettermen from last year's squad, Coach Songster planned on a rebuilding year. It turned out to be the kind of rebuilding year no coach in the country would mind. In his rookie year as head coach, Songster turned in a reputable four and one record in dual meets, capturing second in the conference behind Cape Girardeau.

A fifth place finish in the Spring Invitational meet was considered par for the course, and a 29th place finish in the College Division National Collegiate Athletic Association meet won the Bulldog harriers national respect as there were over 50 teams entered.

Coach Songster will have the entire team returning next fall with the exception of graduating senior, Ron Werling. Through mutual respect, the desire to be a winner, and the natural talent which made up the team, a combination of coach and athletes put together a winning combination which will long be remembered.

Assisting Bulldog harrier Rodger Lawrence with a spiked leg was team manager Dennis Newbrough. Giving some pointers for treatment was the other team manager, Ron Clawson. Observing the repair job were the Nissing twins, Rich and Ron, and Ray Moncavage.

College Cheerleaders

Enthusiastic, vivacious, and effervescent help describe the qualities displayed by the College cheerleaders at athletic events which pitted the Bulldogs against top competition.

This year's cheerleaders were selected by a panel of students and faculty members at tryouts held in early September.

arb Haskins and Jill Billington were selected by the cheerleaders to serve as co-captains over the past year.

Spirit, Desire Lead Cagers to Successful Season

As predicted by the experts in the pre-season poll, the Bulldog Cagers finished second in the MIAA Conference race to nationally ranked Southwest Missouri State, Springfield.

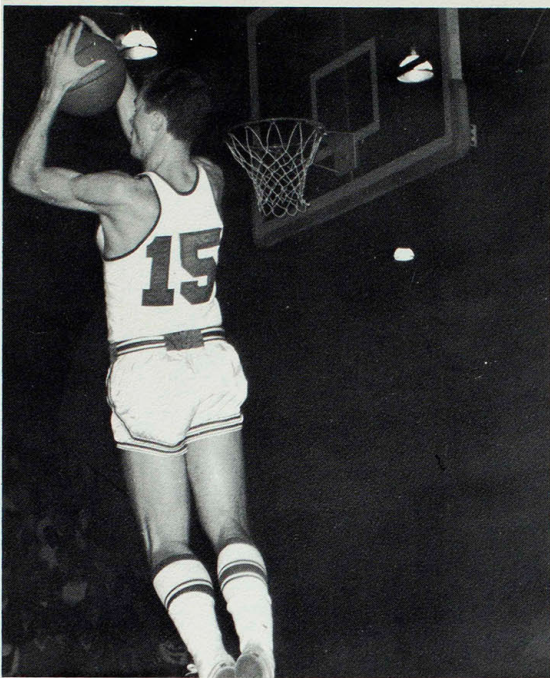

The Bulldogs provided many thrills for the home fans in the Pershing Arena as they won 8 out of 10 games played at home.

The offensive attack displayed by the Bulldogs resulted in a 77.3 offensive average while the defensive work of the team allowed their opponents to score on the average of 73.9 points per game.

While establishing the season slate the Cagers set a Pershing field house record for scoring in one game by racking up Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, 118-68.

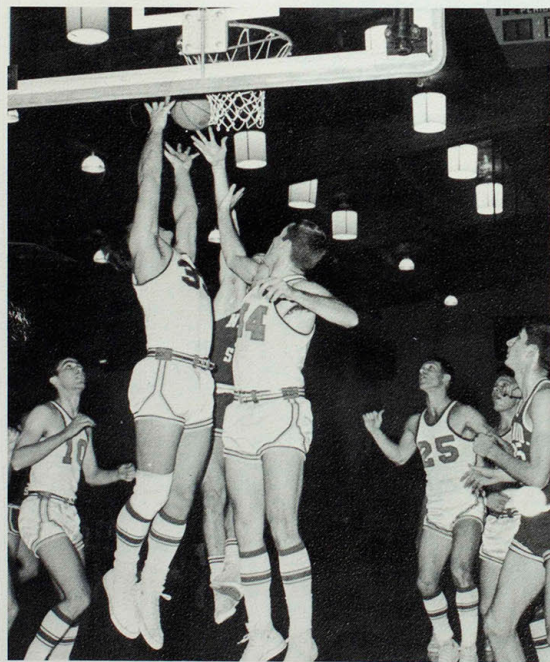

The nucleus of the starting line-up for the Bulldogs was made up of seven returning lettermen and two transfer students, Paul Ozug and Ken McBride, who provided the speed and board power that was lacking in last year's season.

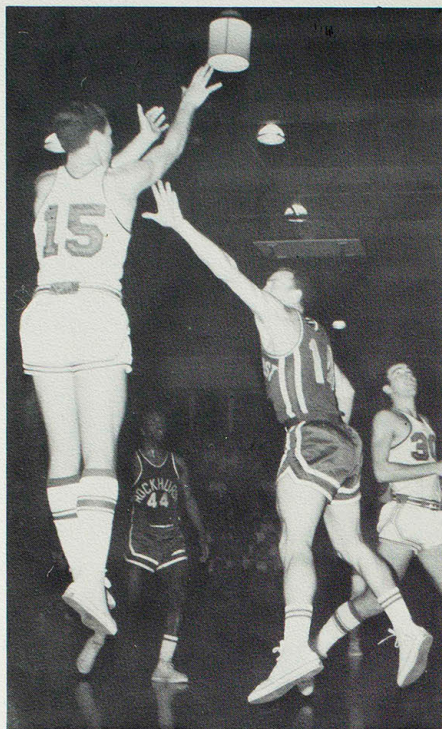

Coaches Boyd King and Willard Sims were particularly proud of the spirit and desire displayed by the team during the past season.

The Bulldog Cagers opened the season at home with a 91 - 76 victory over Central College of Pella, Iowa. Starting for the 'Dogs in the opening game were seniors Rich Rider and Ken McBride at the guard position. At the forward position were all-conference nominee Paul Ozug and freshman Claude Wilson. At the post position Coach King selected 6'7" John Hines.

Through the first six games, four of which were played at home, the Bulldogs compiled a 4 - 2 record with victories coming over Central Methodist, Central Missouri State, and Omaha University.

The Bulldogs then entered the Quincy Holiday Tournament and were able to pick up only one victory against two defeats. Mike McPherson was selected to the all-tournament team.

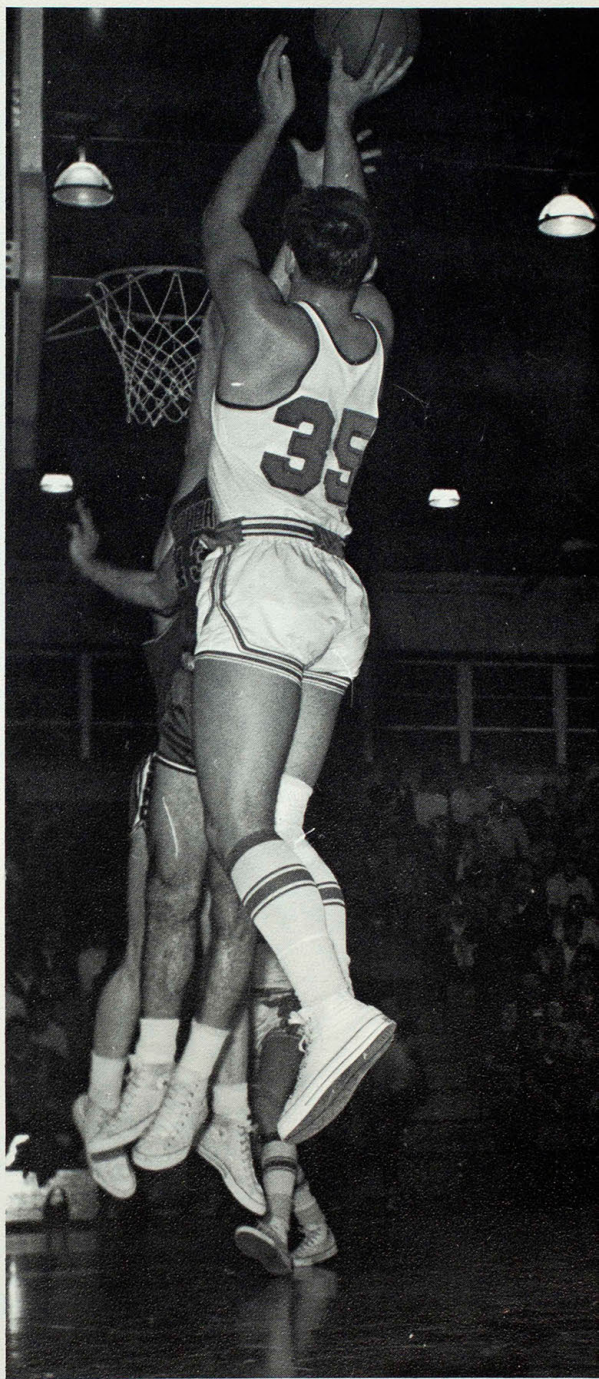

Moving into the second half of the cage season the Bulldogs began with a victory over Northwest Missouri State and like the other clubs in the MIAA conference other than Southwest Missouri State, the Bulldogs had trouble winning on the road. Toward the close of the season, Coaches King and Sims selected as their starting line-up Rick Cash, Paul Ozug, Ken McBride, Rich Rider, and Ron Sterchi. This line-up seemed to give the Bulldogs the balanced attack and board power which was lacking midway through the season.

Paul Ozug led the MIAA conference in scoring for the season with a 21.1 average and he was second in rebounding with a 13.4 average. Rich Rider came out on top as the leading free throw shooter in the conference with a .826 average from the charity stripe and finished third with a 47.6 field goal shooting percentage.

Ken McBride was among the leaders in the conference with assists. The Bulldog's season record for the past year totaled 12 wins against 11 losses.

With the loss of only four regulars and a strong returning nucleus, the Bulldogs should be definite contenders for the MIAA conference crown in the 1968-69 cage season according to Coach Boyd King.

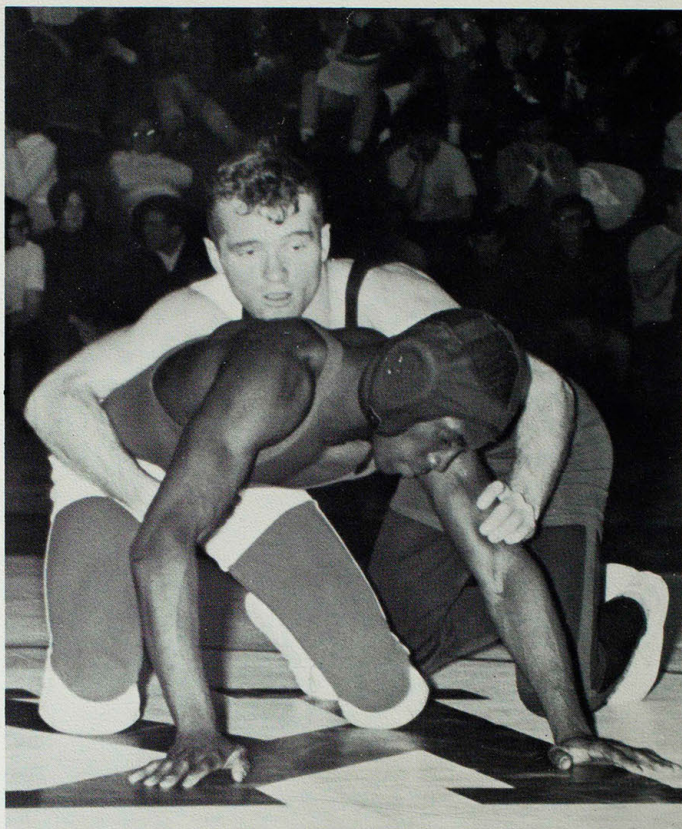

Bulldogs Capture Wrestling Crown

"Best effort I've ever seen," commented wrestling coach H. A. Walmsley as his Bulldogs captured the 1968 MIAA Conference wrestling championship.

Bulldog wrestlers won twelve of eighteen dual meets this past winter with five losses and one tie coming at the hands of such national powers as University of Missouri, C o l u m b i a ; Kansas State, Manhattan, Kansas; 1967 MIAA conference champions, Northwest Missouri State; and Wayne State University, Wayne, Nebraska.

For the relatively young Bulldogs the training for the season was strenuous and tiring. The long hours of work by team members and Coach H. A. Walmsley were rewarded with a strong dual victory record.

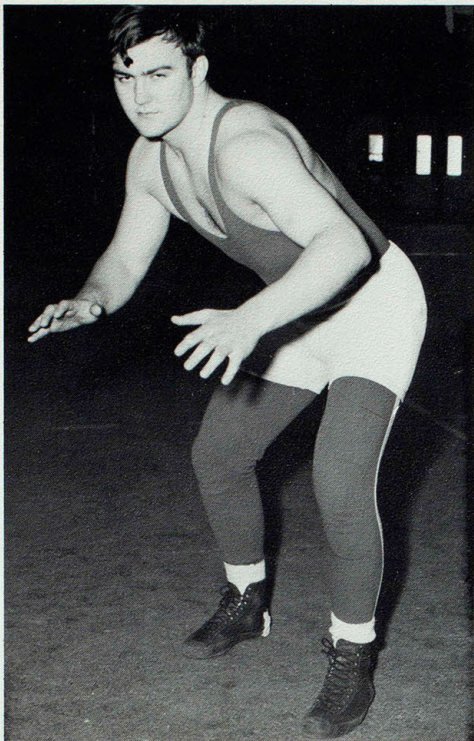

Different individual Bulldog wrestlers carried matches for the team on several occasions. Outstanding performances were given by Curt Hines, co-captain; Curd Alexander, George Simmons, and heavy-weight Richard Beard, co-captain. On many occasions these wrestlers came through with deciding victories.

Rich Beard placed 4th nationally and was named to the All-American wrestling team.

Curd Alexander won the 115 pound class national wrestling title and received All-American honors.

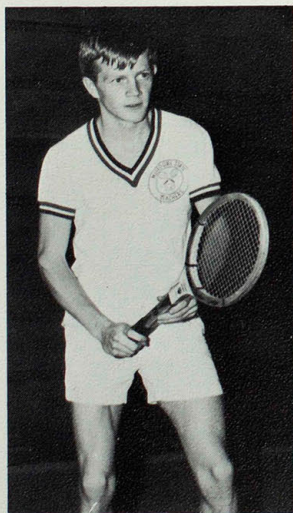

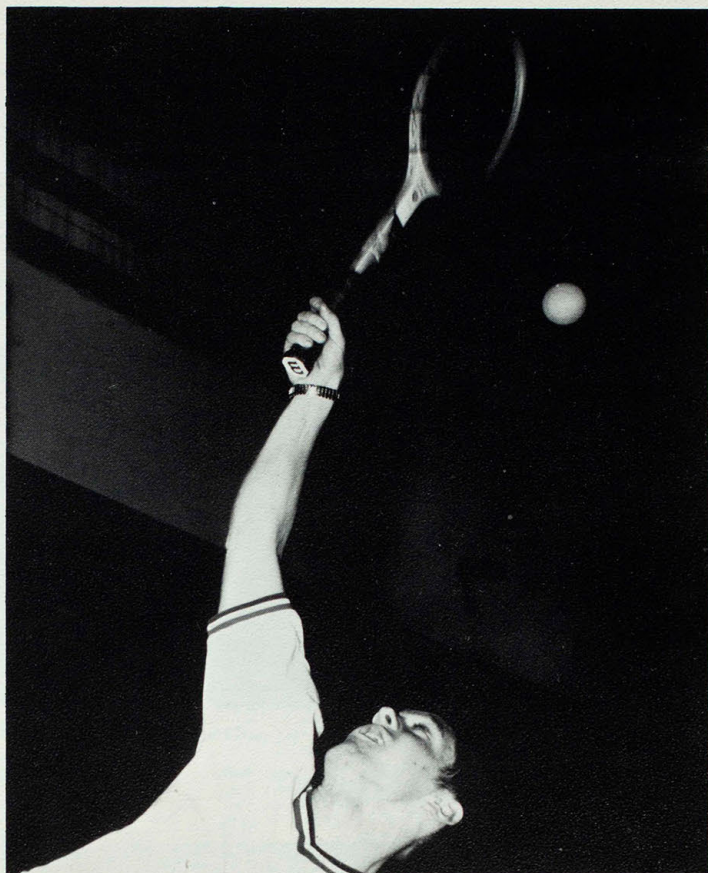

Tennis Team Seeks Fifth Conference Crown

The Bulldog tennis team opened the season looking forward to their fifth straight conference crown. With five returning lettermen on the squad, Coach Ralph Pink expected his team to be the squad to defeat for the MIAA top spot.

Returning to the tennis court this year were lettermen Ken Clow, John Newcomb, Dave Romberg, Ron Sterchi, and Ron Selkirk.

The team began strong work outs in the Pershing Arena early in February. This was in preparation for the season indoor opening match against Graceland College on March 15 in the Pershing Arena.

The tennis team moved outdoors on April 19 as they played Illinois Wesleyan College at Bloomington, Illinois. The conference tournament was held May 9 - 11 at Central Missouri State, Warrensburg.

Baseball Team Opens Season in Southland

Coach Sam Nugent and his baseball team began their season with a tour of southern colleges before opening the regular conference season.

The baseball contingent opened their home season on the recently completed College baseball field against Quincy College of Quincy, Illinois.

With six returning lettermen from last year's young squad, Coach Nugent expressed high expectations for the diamond team to be a definite contender for the conference crown.

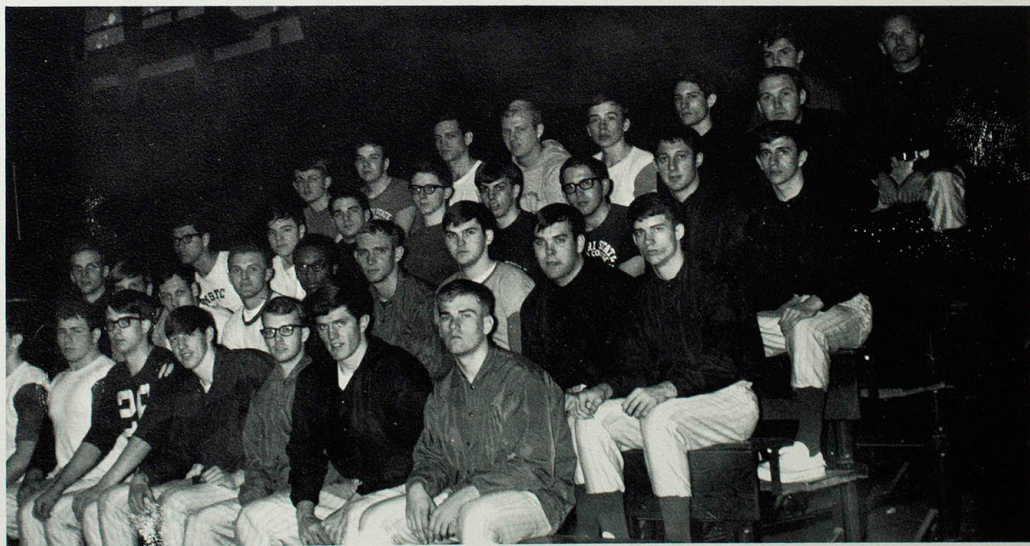

The baseball team began workouts in the Pershing Arena during the early part of this past year and moved outdoors early in March at which time the team was able to give more consideration to the application of the basic skills that were worked on while indoors.

Golf Team Bids for Conference Crown

Three returning lettermen comprised the nucleus of the Bulldog golf team which was considered to be one of the top contenders for the MIAA conference crown. Back this year for Coach Bill Richerson's links team were Mike Brake, Pat Elliott, and Rick Mansfield.

Gary Pittinger and Mike Delahaunty, returning squadmen from the 1967 campaign, and sophomore, Gary Derby, provided a strong attack for the Bulldog contingent.

Practice for the linkmen began indoors in late January. They were able to move out to the Kirksville Country Club in March when they were put through a rigorous training and conditioning program as they prepared for their opening match on April 1 against the University of Missouri, Rolla.

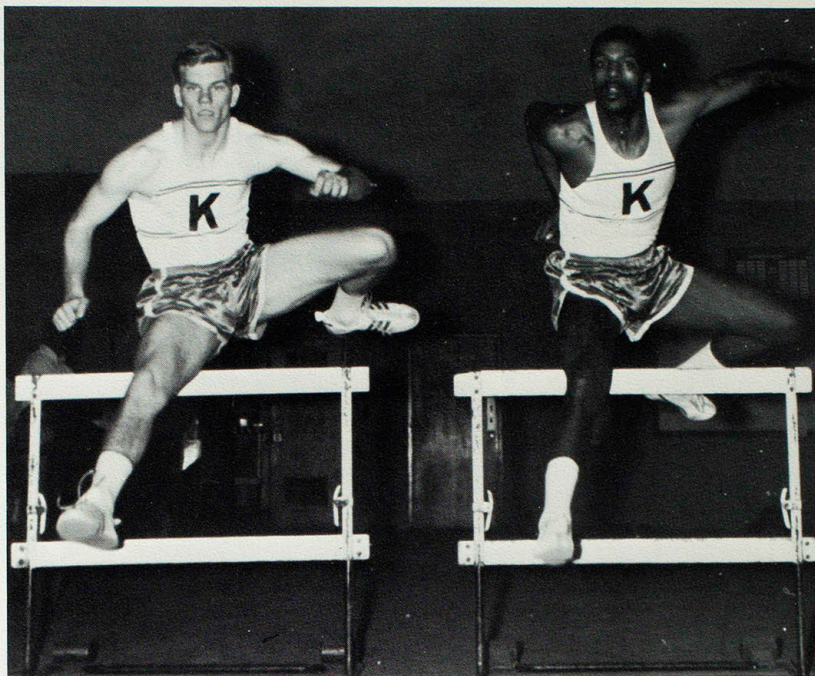

The first home match for the golfers was against William Penn College on April 5.

Bulldog Track Men Rank High Nationally

Coach Kenneth Gardner again assembled one of the nation's top College track teams at NMSC. The squad again was rated the team to defeat in the MIAA indoor and outdoor conference meets.

The thinclads began their indoor competition at the Illinois Invitational Track Meet which found strong performances by shotputter Paul Economides, hurdler Ron Davis and the mile relay team comprised of Al Jackson, Jerome Walker, Wayne Denny and Ron Davis.

The outdoor season got underway with the Texas relays and closed with the MIAA conference meet at Central Missouri State at Warrensburg.

Intramurals Attract Members of Both Sexes

Intramurals began this past fall quarter with the men and women's tug of war competition. Capturing first place in the men's division was Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity who defeated the McPhersons in the championship pull. Members of the Women's Physical Education club were successful in capturing the female division of the tug of war competition.

Due to the work on the intramural field, fleetball competition was not held last year. The annual turkey run held in late November attracted about 50 participants who attempted to cover a 1.7 mile course across and around the College campus. Breaking the wire in first place was Vic Davis followed closely by Keith Gass and Gary Dou-Brava. Winning time for the winner was 9 minutes and 27 seconds.

Indoor intramural competition got underway with volleyball games taking place on all available courts in the Pershing Arena. After four weeks of vigorous competition, the faculty and the Samoans came face to face for the all-school volleyball championship. After nearly three hours of battling and spiking, the Samoans won the final game of the five-game set and were crowned champions.

Dan Menze, Sigma Tau Gamma, and Terry Weis, Phi Sigma Epsilon, finished first and second respectively in the fall intramural tennis games.

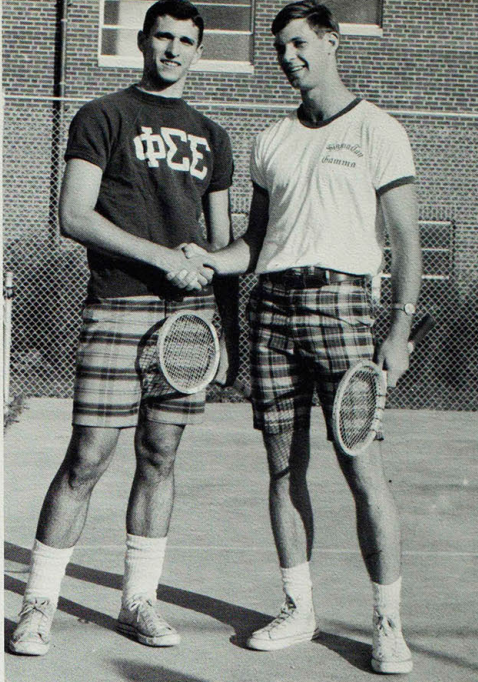

The College women's extramural basketball team won the State of Missouri College Women's Basketball championship. The co-eds defeated the University of Missouri, Kansas City; Central Missouri State, Warrensburg; and Central Methodist College, Fayette, on their way to the Missouri State Sports Day Basketball championship.

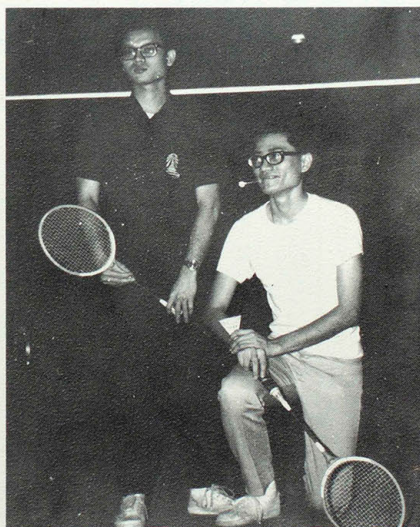

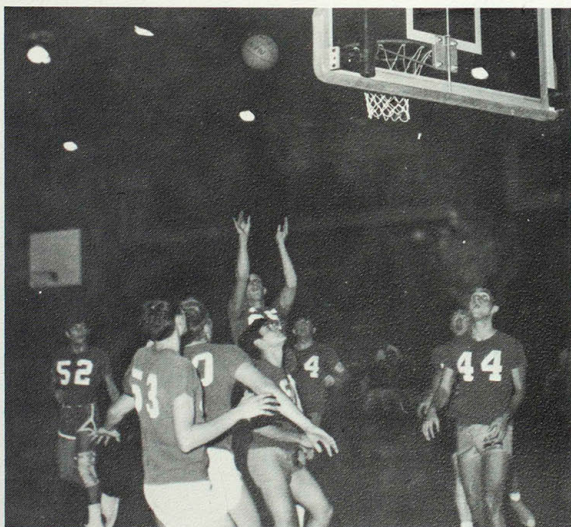

Sixty-four teams saw action in the men's intramural basketball play with the Sports Imperial team winning the all-school championship by defeating the Piston Kings in the championship game.

Badminton doubles wound up with Seri Lammoonpun and Amornchai Tantimedh defeating Bill McCourt and Gene Ball in the championship encounter. Seri won the singles badminton title by defeating Amornchai in a three-match play off.

Lai Mo Ping repeated as singles champion in the men's table tennis tournament as he downed Mike Hupfer. Mo Ping and Campfield Ip also gained their second successive doubles ping pong championship.

Spring intramurals were concluded with competition in soft ball, track and horseshoes.

STUDENT LIFE

Queen Kaye Reigns Over Homecoming

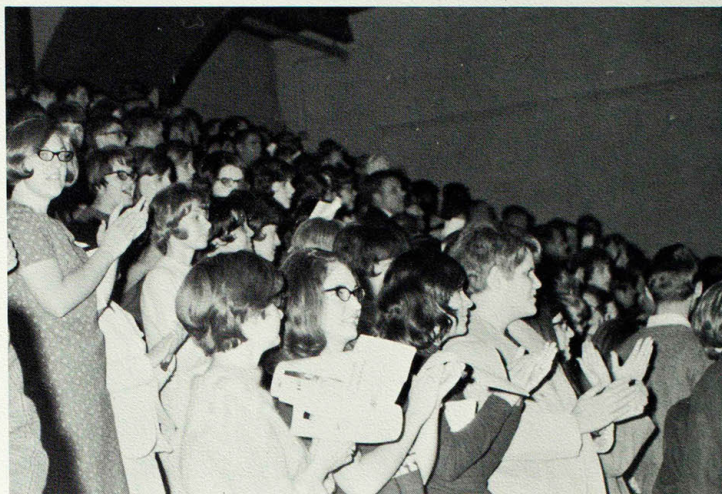

Beginning the Centennial Homecoming activities was the crowning of Kaye Johnson, an Independent candidate, as Homecoming Queen. Kaye, a sophomore from Marceline, was escorted by John Newcomb. Kaye is an art major and is on the ECHO Staff. As a cheerleader, she is also a strong supporter of the Bulldogs.

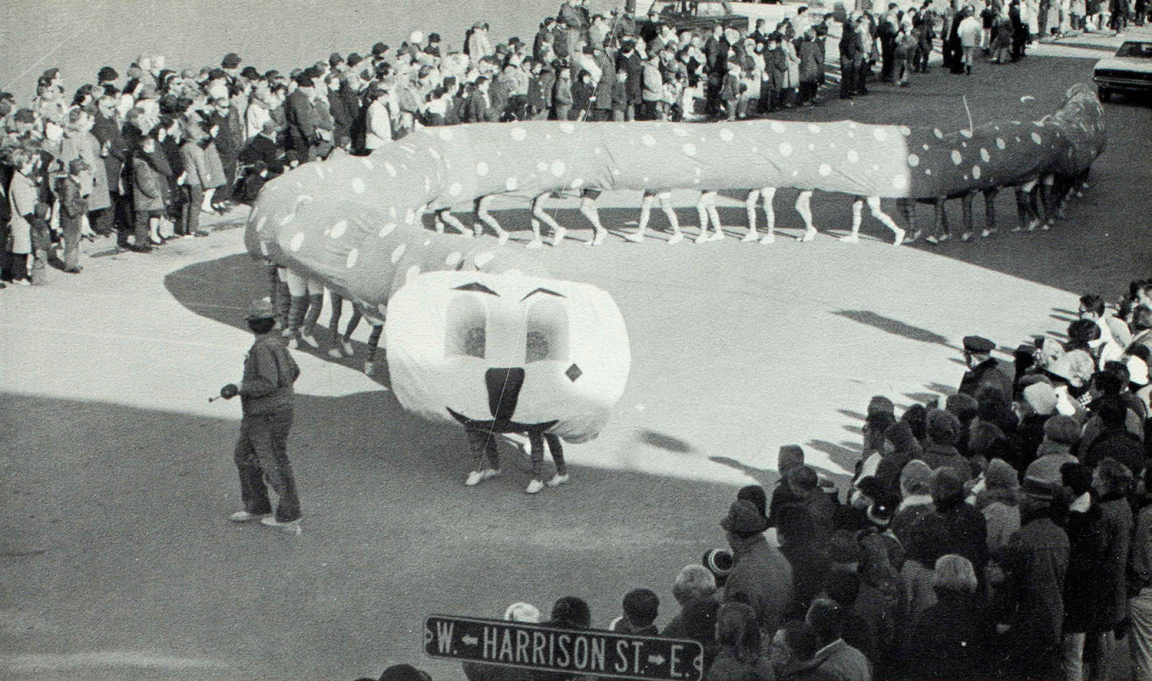

Claudia Burkhardt, sponsored by Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority, was chosen as an attendant by the student body. Claudia is a member of SNEA, president of Beta Tau Delta and is a sophomore elementary major.

A junior English major, Donna Carlson, was chosen as the other attendant. Sponsored by Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority, Donna is a member of College Players and SNEA.

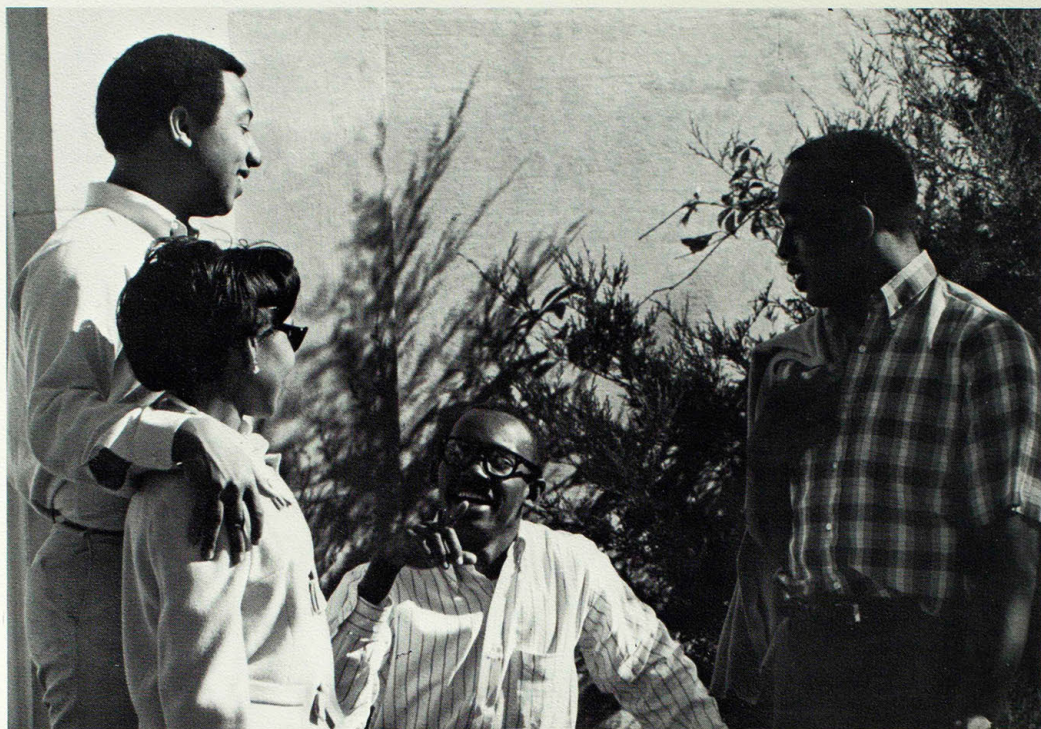

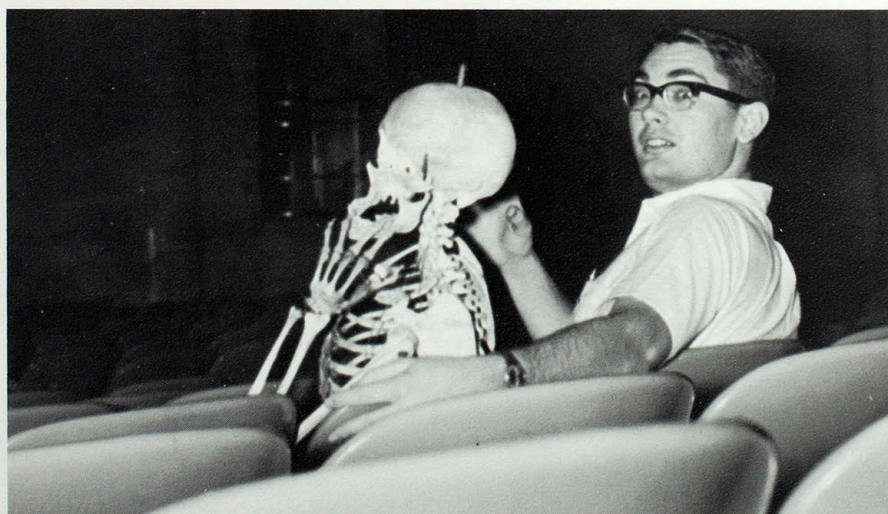

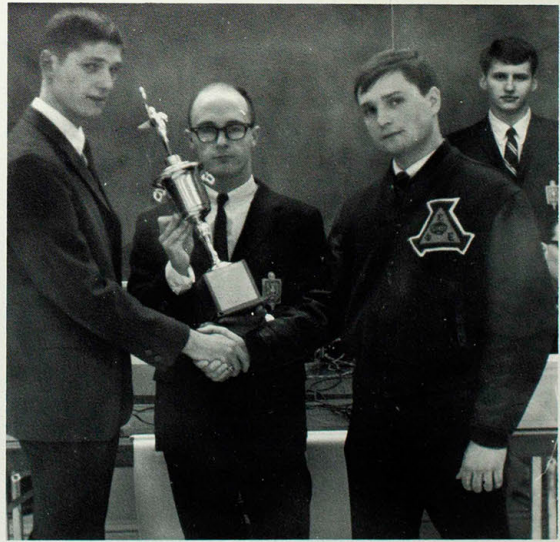

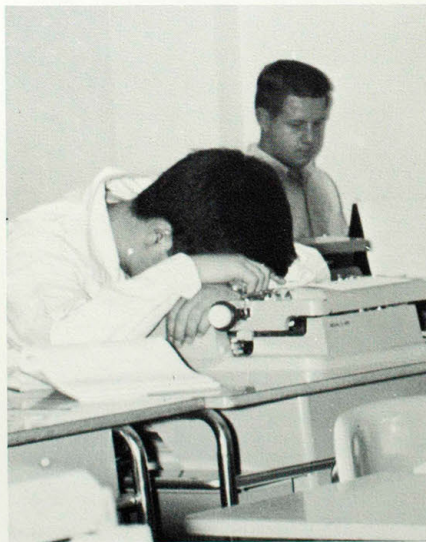

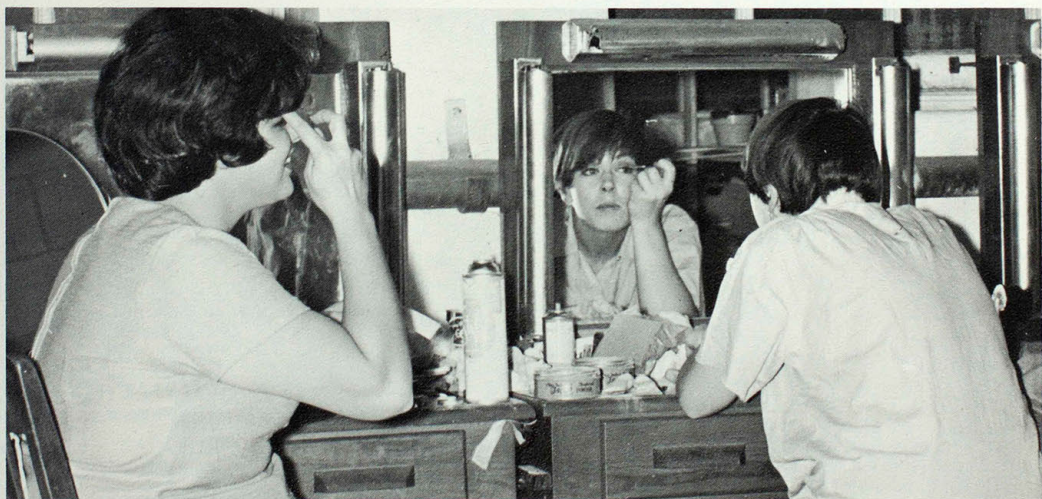

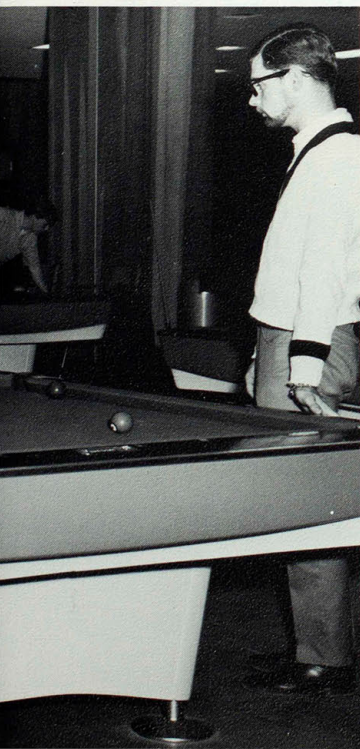

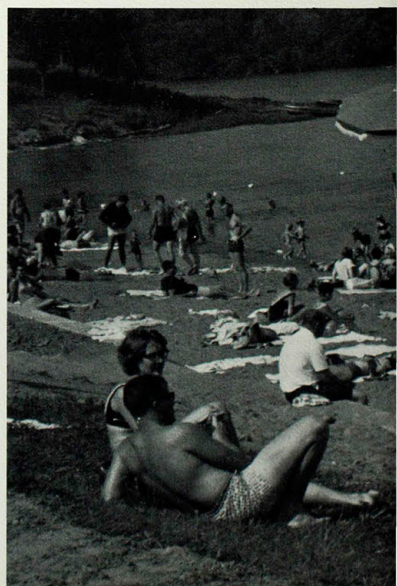

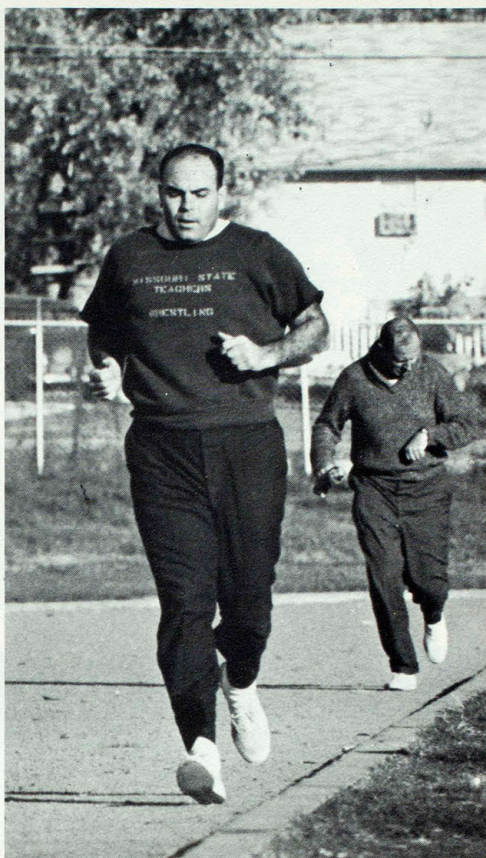

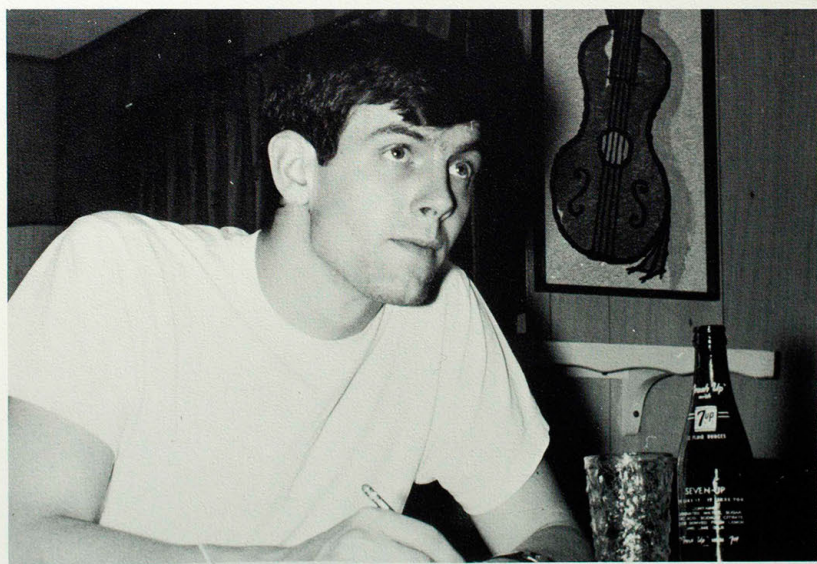

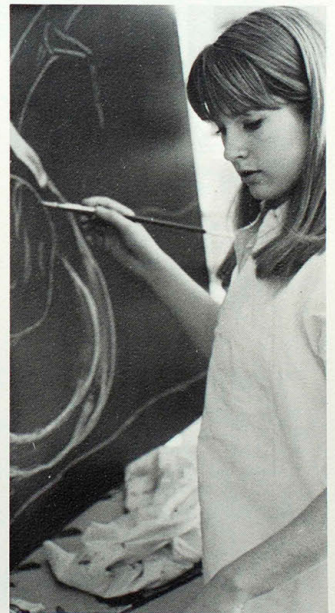

Three NMSC co-eds served as editors of the Index during the 1967-68 academic year. Georgia Schacher, fall quarter editor, Phyllis Dysart, winter quarter editor, and Joyce Sevits, spring quarter editor, discussed their various publications with Index advisor, Joe Galowski.

Sheila Logston talked over her assignment as an Index reporter with Joyce Sevits, editor of the publication during the spring quarter.

Looking through past editions of the Index for information was the responsibility of Cheryl Wilson as histories editor of the Index this past year. She also served as news editor and picture editor of the Index.

Members of the editorial staff of the Index during the winter quarter included Marilyn Bullock, Joyce Sevit, Phyllis Dysart, Cheryl Wilson, and Richard Demarest.

Kirk Mote and Curt Funk were the photographers for the Index who covered every area of the campus with their cameras.

Sam Berkowitz, at the typewriter, was busily engaged throughout the year writing sports information for the Index. Ed Sick, assistant Index photographer, and Mike Trent, business manager, discussed plans for providing proper coverage of Index advertisements.

1968 Index Staff

For the first time in the history of the College Index, three NMSC co-eds served as editors of the weekly publication. The responsibility of trying to retain the "Best State College Newspaper in Missouri" title awarded the Index in 1967, was riding on their shoulders. During the fall quarter, Georgia Schacher assumed the responsibilities of getting the Index underway. Stanley Williams provided the faculty leadership.

Phyllis Dysart picked up the reins in the winter quarter as she and her staff worked many hours writing copy, writing headlines, and drawing layouts. The staff strived to meet the ever demanding deadlines with news coverage of the ECHO queen election, various College productions, Campus Bowl and Twirp Week. Midway through the quarter, Joe Galkowski was named Index adviser as Mr. Williams was named administrative assistant to the Dean of Instruction.

Spring quarter issues of the Index were under the leadership of Joyce Sevit. Coverage of the campus elections and providing publicity for the many senior recitals and art shows highlighted spring reporting.

Throughout the year extensive coverage was given the various athletic programs by staff sports reporters of the Index.

The advertising segment of the Index was handled by Mike Trent, advertising manager.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

Thirty-five NMSC students were named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges in November of 1967. Recipients of the Who's Who award showed outstanding scholarship, leadership, and cooperation in education and extra-curricular activities, general citizenship, and promise of future usefulness toward the campus and the community. These students were officially recommended by the College and then accepted by the organization.

Echo Queen Candidates

Faculty, Students Select Finalists

Forty campus co-eds were nominated as 1968 ECHO Queen candidates by more than 1,100 NMSC students. These finalists were then presented before a board of judges at a reception held in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. Judges for the contest were: students--Jack Wright, student council president; Michael Trent, ECHO editor; Janie English, and Marilyn Bullock; faculty--Dr. Elizabeth Worrell, Language and Literature division; and James Preston, Social Scienc division; and off campus--Mrs. Gingo Reed, chairman of the Northeast Missouri Fair Queen competition; and Eldon Alexander, owner of photography studios.

Upon narrowing the field of candidates down to five, the ECHO Staff then contacted Peter Graves, known for his starring role in the television series "Mission Impossible," to make the final queen selection.

Janie English and Dr. Elizabeth Worrell were members of the faculty-student committee who selected the five finalists.

ECHO Queen finalists included: seated, Brooke Williams, Sandi Kincaid, and Helen Cooper. Standing, Kathy Leek and Janet Seals.

Dear Mr. Galkowski:

First I would like to thank you for honoring me by your request that I judge your Queen Contest. Secondly I would like to say this: Talk about your impossible missions. All of your candidates are outstanding and that makes a tough choice.

However, I did after considerable mulling, select Kathy Leek as my choice. Would you believe that even now I'm not sure. The choice was like selecting one rose from a vase of five perfect blooms.

Thank you again for asking me to participate in your contest.

Sincerely,

Peter Graves

1968 Echo Queen

Kathy Leek

The 1968 ECHO staff was under the supervision of two faculty advisors. Throughout the year Joe Galkowski and Stanley Williams provided the editors and the members of the staff with the basic guidelines for planning and constructing the 1968 NMSC yearbook.

Mike Hupfer, sports editor, and Dale Barrett, assistant editor, discussed on many occasions various layouts and copy blocks that were to appear in the 1968 ECHO.

Glenda Conrad is pictured proofreading ECHO copy while Rita Reagan and Gloria Weyand review various layouts to be used in the ECHO.

1968 ECHO Staff

Mike Trent was appointed editor of the 1968 ECHO last spring and the ball began rolling. Selection of Dale Barrett as assistant editor, Joann Zeigler, business manager, Mary Cox, assistant business manager and Mike Hupfer, sports editor, completed the foundation of the staff.

Following a summer course in yearbook productions at the University of Minnesota, Trent began the planning stages for the ECHO. When the academic year began in September the final staff members were named and the regular Monday evening meetings of the ECHO staff began under the supervision of faculty adviser Stanley Williams.

Throughout the year Ed Sick, photographer for the '68 ECHO, began appearing all over campus trying to capture the real student life on the NMSC campus. Following a six-week session of portrait taking by Glenn Rider, over 3,000 student pictures were available for layouts.

In January, due to an administrative change, Joe Galkowski assumed the duties of ECHO adviser.

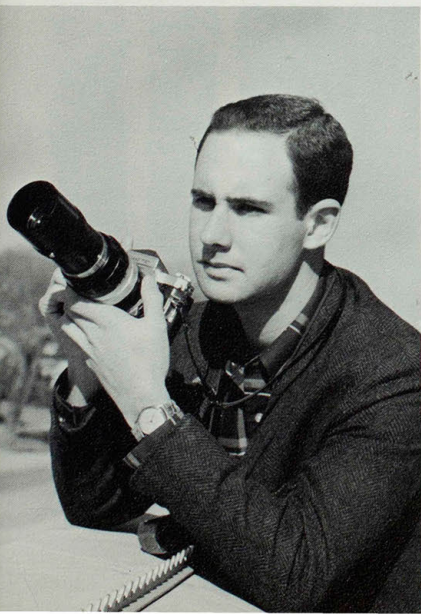

On March 1, the final copy of the ECHO reached the printer at five minutes to five -- or five minutes before the final deadline!

A staff banquet, the annual ECHO dance, and finally, distribution of the completed ECHO ended a personally rewarding year for all members of the ECHO staff.

Ed Sick toured the NMSC campus many times during the past year searching for unusual student life pictures as photographer for the ECHO.

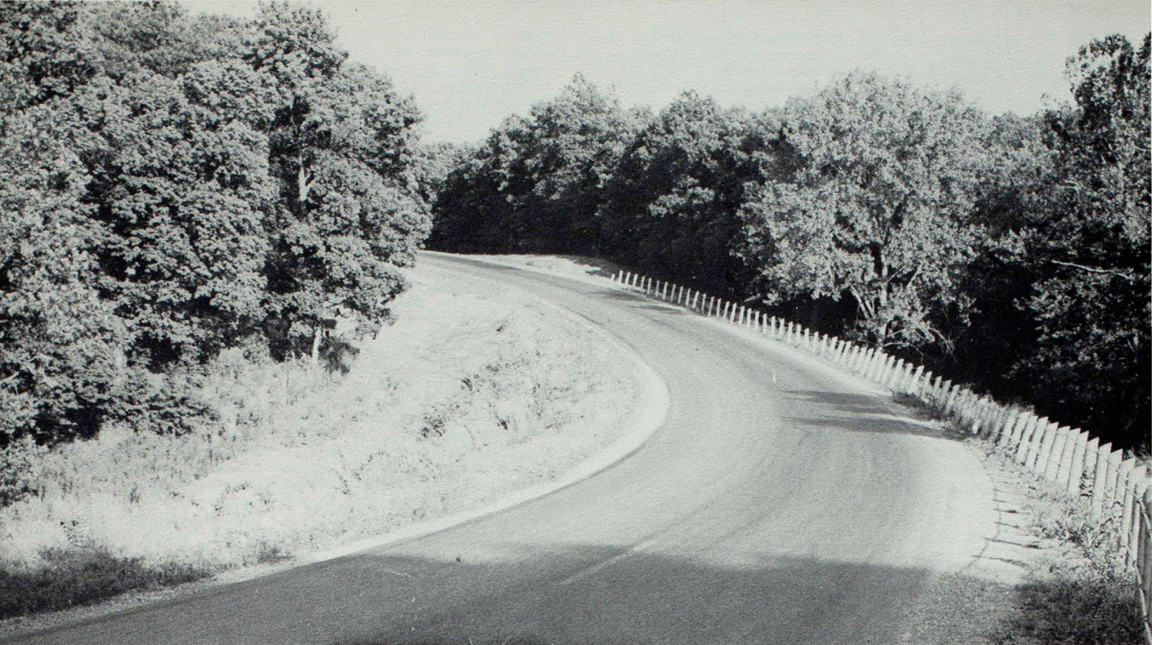

The bulk of the busy work on the ECHO was absorbed by several of the volunteer staff members. Copy reading, picture identification, and many other tedious tasks were carried out by this group of individuals. Included were left to right: Diane Cushman, Andrea Kochman, Kathy Bailey, and Cheryl Wilson.

From the Editor

The journey down the road to the fulfillment of any successful and worthwhile project is said to parallel the highway of life. One can expect to encounter rough sections, detours, irritating delays due to construction and re-construction, and many unexpected chug-holes. This year's annual, though pleasant, has been such a road.

Beginning with my attendance at the University of Minnesota workshop in yearbook journalism, the road of the 1968 ECHO started off on smooth pavement. After many winding curves and hill crests, marked by a certain amount of expected ruggedness, the book reached its completion through the loyalty and cooperation of the staff, coupled with the patience and understanding of Mr. Stanley Williams and Mr. Joe Galkowski, advisers.

Learning how to work with the staff and after careful preparation, I was able to observe how the intricate parts of the book fell together with professional-like precision. The knowledge and experience gained will be valuable to me in my future endeavors.

To the members of my graduating class—whether we choose the rough road to higher education, the wide route to classroom teaching, the fast freeway to corporate fame, or a jungle path somewhere in Southeast Asia, the preparation that we have received at Northeast Missouri State will make our trip down life's road smoother for us and our fellow travelers.
